C. No. 1944 C - From the D.P.I., R.O.C. No.124 D/26, dated 17-6-1926.

Scholarships - United Kingdom - Messrs. Krishnamurthi and Ramaswami - Descriptive rolls.

The usual form of the descriptive roll is that contained in G.O. No. 535 Educational, dated 11-8-1906. The D.P.I. has apparently adopted the form* in G.O. No.121 Law (Education), dated 25-1-1924. The only difference between the two is that the latter does not provide for the candidate's marks of identification and for a record of ~~this~~ height. It is perhaps unnecessary to send back the rolls ~~for revision~~ ~~for~~ supplying these defects as the scholars will in any case be taking passports when they leave India and these will contain the necessary particulars.

A draft order, a letter to the High Commissioner and letters of introduction are submitted.
