The assistant clerk was appointed when the Council
was formed in June 1921 and confirmed in the appointment.
Of course, a certificate of physical fitness was not required to be produced by him.

He enjoyed leave on full average salary one month at a time on two occasions already and no substitute was appointed on either occasion.

He has now applied for leave again, but a substitute has been entertained owing to pressure of work.
Kindly intimate to me whether he may be granted leave on full average salary and if so how long.

With reference to the Secretary's query overleaf, it is submitted that the order declaring the clerks in the offices of the D.C.'s as eligible for leave under the Fundamental Rules was issued with the concurrence of Finance. That Dept. in examining the case accepted a probable liability of Rs 8687 in 1926-27. and this expenditure presupposed the counting of previous service so as to render possible the grant of leave to the clerks in question in 1926-27. This liability having thus been specifically accepted by Finance, it was thought unnecessary to trouble Finance again about the same point. It was also informally ascertained from that Dept. that it was not necessary to send the file to them.
