The rules to which reference is made by the Govt of India are those printed on pages 475-477 of Part I of the Gazette of India dated 10th April 1926.

The position taken up in the Home department letter of the ~~23rd~~ 23rd April 1926, ~~which appears~~ seems to be that in cases like that of Mr. Parameswaran he should not be appointed to the Indian Educational Service but that the Local Govt should take this opportunity to create a corresponding appointment in the Provincial Service. This matter is elaborated in the telegram from the Viceroy (Home Dept) No. 436-S dated the 4th March 1926 to the Secretary of State, copy of which is put up below.
