Miss Janaki Ammal, the Selection Grade Lady Sub Asstt.Surgeon on joining duty at the Queen Mary's College in September 1925 was allotted two small rooms and a bath room in the college buildings as her quarters. The standard rent of these rooms was Rs.26 p.m. Finding however that these rooms were too small and inconvenient, she occupied two other more spacious rooms with the permission of the Principal of the college. The standard rent of these rooms was Rs.39 p.m.

2. Ordinarily she should pay for the quarters the standard rent of Rs.39 p.m. for occupying rooms which were not allotted to her. The D.P.I. however represented that as she could not be expected to pay a rent of Rs.39 p.m. and as she was required to live in the interests of the students of the college rent may be recovered on the 10 p.c. ^{var. c} under F.R. 45(b) viz. Rs.22-8-0. This proposal was accepted in G.O.No.362 Law Edn. d. 10-3-26; it was assumed at the time that Law Edn. satisfied themselves that it was necessary to allow her the use of the whole extent proposed.

3. The A.G. now states that Miss Janaki Ammal has claimed the refund of the excess rent paid by her before the issue of G.O.362 Law(Edn) d. 10-3-26 and enquires whether the said G.O. is intended to have ~~rent~~ retrospective effect or whether it should, under Art.232 of the Civil Account Code Vol.I be held to take effect from the date of its issue viz. 10-3-26.

3. The question whether the G.O.362 Law(Edn) dated 10-3-26 is to have retrospective effect or not is mainly one for consideration in Law(Edn). If they propose to give retrospective effect Finance need not object.

4. The file may be passed on to Law Edn. for issue of necessary orders.

The Surgeon General's recommendation that the rent recoverable from the Lady Subash Singh should be fixed at ten per cent of her emoluments was based on the grounds that she was required to live in the premises of the college in the interests of the students and that it was hard to expect her to pay ^{the standard} rent of Rs 39 a month.
