Myers, Additional Professor, Queen Mary's College, Madras, in the Indian Educational Service has been appointed to officiate as Principal and Professor of of the college in G.O.No.219 R dated 26th March 1926 during the absence of Miss de la Hay on leave or until further orders. I have in a separate communication recommended that the post of Professor in the Indian Educational Service held by Miss K.M. Myers may be held in abeyance during the period of her absence on other duty as Principal and that a temporary post in the Madras Educational Service created instead. On receipt of Government sanction I propose to appoint Miss M.T. Tomlinson, permanent Assistant Professor, Queen Mary's College, in the Madras Educational Service to the newly created temporary post in the Madras Educational Service. I recommend that Srimathi M. Lakshmi Ammal, permanent Assistant Lecturer, Queen Mary's College, in the subordinate educational service be appointed to officiate as Assistant Professor in the Madras Educational Service during the absence of Miss Tomlinson on other duty or until further orders. Mrs. Lakshmi Ammal is the most senior among the officers in the subordinate educational service (women's branch). She returned from England last year with an English degree after two years' deputation. She has already officiated twice in the Madras Educational Service.

Subject: Appointment of Asst Professor of English, Queen Mary's College in the M.E.S.

The recommendation of the D.P.I. is that consequent on the appointment of Miss Myers, Professor of English, Queen Mary's College, as Principal of the ~~Queen Mary's~~ ^{same} College, the ~~former~~ post in the I.E.S. should be kept in abeyance and that, in the place ~~to~~ to be created in the M.E.S. instead, Miss M.T. Tomlinson, Asst. Professor of English should be appointed. In place of the latter, the D.P.I. proposes that Prinathi Lakshmi Ammal may be appointed & act in the M.E.S. The Government of India are to be addressed for keeping the post of Professor of English in the I.E.S. in abeyance and the post in the M.E.S. can be created only when the I.E.S. post is ~~abeyance~~ kept in abeyance. Orders on this recommendation may therefore issue after the receipt of the orders of the Govt of India sanctioning

The keeping in abeyance the post of Professor of English, Queen Mary's College in the D.E.S.

The D.P.I may be informed D.O. that the proposal contained in his recommendation roll no. 8/26 of 11.5.26 and that formal order will issue later.
A draft D.O. is submitted.
