It has been brought to the notice of Government that certain local bodies ^{have recently} ~~namely recently~~ resolved to introduce the teaching of Hindi in the elementary ~~sch~~ schools under their control. The Govt. have carefully considered the advisability of permitting ~~the~~ local bodies to carry these resolutions into effect both from the practical and legal aspects. In ~~regard~~ regard to the practical aspect of the question they consider that the courses of study in elementary schools are already sufficiently arduous and that it should not be made more so by the introduction of Hindi as an additional subject. The Advisory Committee of the Madras Legislative Council constituted for advising the Government on matters relating to Education and Registration, which has been consulted in the matter, does not also recommend the use of Hindi in elementary schools.

On the legal aspect, ~~the following~~ rule (b) of the rules framed under section 3(v) of the Madras Elementary Education Act, makes an ~~extension~~ exhaustive mention of compulsory and optional subjects from which a selection has to be made. One of the subjects of the latter class is English or a Vernacular of the Presidency. Hindi language not being a vernacular of the Presidency, cannot be recognised as an optional subject. Nor can it be recognised as a compulsory course of study ~~xx~~ under the first part of rule (b) in the case of pupils whose vernacular is not Hindi.

~~In the circumstances all Local bodies are advised that no attempt should be made to teach Hindi in any of the elementary schools under their control.~~
