From (Name) Lieut-Col. J. P. Cameron, C.I.E., I.M.S.
(Designation) Inspector-General of Reformatory Schools.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras

Law (General) Department.

Sir,

@ Children Act.

Under Rule 21 of the Supplementary Rules, it has been the practice hitherto to appoint the Head Master of the Reformatory School, Chingleput, to officiate as Superintendent, while the Superintendent absents himself on leave. Now that the District Medical Officer, Chingleput, has been directed to perform the duties of the Medical Officer of the School, in G.O.No. 181. Mis., Law (Education), dated the 5th February 1926, it follows that with reference to Rule 32 (2) of the Jail Manual, the Medical Officer should be in charge of the School during the absence of the Superintendent, either on casual leave or leave on average pay. If the Medical Officer is to officiate, when the Superintendent proceeds on leave, other than casual it is necessary to fix the allowance to be drawn by him for holding the administrative charge of the School and to classify the School with reference to Rule 4 of the Jail Manual.

2. I propose that the School be classed, for this purpose, as a third class District Jail, which would carry an allowance of Rs.75/- per mensem.

3. The Accountant-General takes no objection to the above proposal being sanctioned by Government - please vide copy of his letter No. G.A.Medl. 189, dated the 18th May 1926.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. P. G.

Lieut-Col, I. M. S.
Inspector-General of Reformatory Schools.

Copy of letter No. G.A.Medl. 189, dated the 18th May 1926, - from the Accountant-General, Madras.

There is no audit objection to the Reformatory school, Chingleput being classed as a third class District Jail and to the grant of a special pay of Rs.75/- a month to the District Medical Officer, Chingleput, for the period he is appointed to act Superintendent of the above Reformatory School, in addition to his own duties.

(C.No.1393-B) From the I.G of Reformatory schools
No.G.428 dated 3-6-1926.

Subject:- Reformatory and senior certified school,
Chingleput--classification as a 3rd class
District Jail.

1
Code of School class
in the Jail Dept.
Rules of children
Act rules.
In the Reformatory school, Chingleput, there is a headmaster on Rs.75-250 below the Superintendent whose post is included in the cadre of Superintendents of District Jails (Pay Rs.400-20-500). When the Superintendent is absent from the station the powers vested in him may be exercised ~~by the headmaster~~ by the headmaster. Obviously, the headmaster exercises these powers when the Superintendent goes on casual leave. When the Superintendent is granted leave on average pay or long leave another officer is ordinarily posted to officiate as Superintendent. The I.G now proposes that following the practice in the Jail dept., the Dt.Medl.Officer should be in charge of the school during the absence of the Superintendent either on casual leave or on leave on average pay and that this officer should be granted an allowance of Rs. ~~500~~ 75 a month as in the case of 3rd class District jails. Apparently the arrangement will be availed of only in cases where the Superintendent proceeds on leave for short periods. When the leave is for a comparatively long period steps will apparently ~~have to~~ be taken to appoint a whole time superintendent. ~~The Reformatory school~~. The Reformatory school is mainly educational in character and it does not seem essential that the practice followed in the Jail Department should be adopted in this case.

The headmaster<sup>who</sup> is ordinarily a B.A.L.T. is an officer of sufficient status to be in charge of the school for short periods. If, however, it is thought that the I.G.'s proposals should be accepted, the file may be sent to the Finance dept. for acceptance.

The strength of the school is ordinarily 250 and the proposal ~~that the allowance of Rs 75~~ <sup>that the allowance of Rs 75</sup> admissible for D<sup>r</sup> Medical officers in charge of 3rd class D<sup>r</sup> jails ~~is not~~ <sup>may be granted</sup> is reasonable.

C.P.A.

19.6.26

The 16 quotes rule 32(2) of the jail manual. But as the Reformatory School is not a jail, the rules in the jail manual have no application. The institution is educational in character & as stated above there is no obj<sup>n</sup> to the headmaster being in charge when the Supt<sup>r</sup> goes on Casual leave.

I do not see any objection to the proposal of the I.G. <sup>actual</sup> The expenditure will be ~~compa~~ very small: while it would be an advantage <sup>to have</sup> the institution to be in charge of the D.M.O. while the Supt<sup>r</sup> is away.

Please see Law Dept note on pages 1 and 2 ante. The proposal to place the D.M.O. in charge of the Reformatory School, Chingleput during the absence of the Superintendent of the School during his absence on leave other than Casual leave for short periods and to class the school as a 3rd class District Jail in order to enable the D.M.O. to draw special pay of Rs 75* for the additional charge may be accepted.

The proposal seems to be unnecessary. The Reformatory is not governed by the Rules in the Jail Manual; the I.G. has not shown how the present rule, by which the Headmaster officiates in the absence of the Supt<sup>r</sup>, is unsatisfactory.

C.No.1393 B From the Inspector-General of Ref. Schools No. G/428 dated 3rd June, 1926

Subject: Appointment of the Dt. Medical Officer as Officiating Superintendent of the Reformatory School, Chingleput in short vacancies

The I.G. states that now that the Dt. Medical Officer, Chingleput, has been directed to perform the duties of the Medical Officer of the Reformatory School it follows that with reference to rules 32 (2) of the Jail Manual the Medical Officer should be in charge of the school during the absence of the Superintendent, either on casual leave or leave on average pay. The rule in the Jail Manual quoted above does not apply to the Reformatory School and there are separate rules to govern the working of that school. Under these rules the head master of the school should officiate as superintendent in short vacancies. The I.G. has not shown how the present rule by which then head master officiates is (in greater detail) unsatisfactory. He may be requested to explain the necessity for appointing the Medical Officer as the Superintendent.

2. For administrative reasons it is essential for a Gazetted Officer to be in charge of the School during the Superintendent's absence. A Gazetted Officer is available in the Medical Officer of the School.

The Head Master is not a Gazetted Officer and it is undesirable, in my opinion, for him to take over the Executive duties of the Superintendent even for a short period.

Although the Reformatory School may not come under the rules of the Jail Manual, I fail to see why in this particular respect it should be treated differently from Jails.

I personally prefer the School to be in the care of the Medical Officer when the Superintendent is absent and I hope the Government will agree to my proposal.

I am afraid I can't see the force of the T.G.'s contention. The D.O. has to run all over the Dr. & the Kara alone is less suitable to take charge of the Reformatory than the Headmaster who is on the spot all the time. I do not consider that the extra expenditure - trifling though it may be - is justified

No. 1448, dated 30. 7. 1926

The I.G. of Reformatory Schools proposes that the District Medical Officer, Chingleput, should be in charge of the Reformatory and Senior Certified School, Chingleput, during the absence of the Superintendent on leave for short periods and that on such occasions he should be granted an allowance. The D.M.O. has to tour all over the district and for this reason ~~there~~ is less suitable to take charge of the school than the Headmaster who is on the spot all the time. The Govt. are therefore unable to accept the I.G.'s proposals.
