Letter No. 3167 C/25-1, dated 20.10.25

To

The Secretary to the Government of India,

Department of Education, Health and Lands.

Sir,

Deputation of Miss L. H. Philipsz for study in the United Kingdom - Extension of period.

I am directed to invite attention to the correspondence ending with your letter No. 1404 Education, dated the 4th July 1925, conveying the sanction of the Secretary of State for India in Council to the deputation to England of Miss L. H. Philipsz, an officer of the Madras Educational Department, for study.

2. In the Proceedings of this Government, copy of which was communicated with my letter No. 1767 C-3, dated the 11th November 1924, the deputation of the officer had been limited to one year. The officer handed over charge of her appointment in Madras on the 31st July 1924 and resumed it on the 13th September 1925. The Accountant General, Madras, ^{states} ~~holds~~ that the sanction accorded by the Secretary of State for India in Council should be taken to be ^{for} the term ^{specified} ~~granted~~ by this Government in their Proceedings referred to above, ~~that the higher sanction would hold good only for one year~~ ^{accordingly}

from the 1st August 1924 to the 30th July 1925, ~~and~~ and that fresh sanction should be obtained for the officers's overstay.

3. As Miss Philipsz was obliged to remain in England for purposes connected with her study beyond the one year allowed (originally), she could not resume her appointment in India till the 13th August 1925. I am accordingly to request that the sanction for India
of the Secretary of State in Council may be obtained for the extension of the officer's deputation from the 1st August to the 13th September 1925 inclusive.
