Diwan Bahadur K.Ranga Achariyar, Ethnological Assistant Travelling allowance to join appointment.

The post in the Museum to which Diwan Bahadur K. Ranga Achariyar was recently appointed has ~~to~~ been declared to be a gazetted post. As the sanctioned pay of the post is only Rs.200 the officer will come under grade V for purposes of travelling allowance - vide annexure I to T.A. rules. He is however in receipt of a pension of Rs.329 a month and if this is also taken into account his total emoluments come to Rs.529. If the determination of his travelling allowance is based on the aggregate emoluments the officer is eligible to draw T.A. on the rate admissible to grade IV officers according to the annexure quoted above. In either case he can draw only second class railway fare, but grade I officers are eligible for daily allowance and mileage at Rs.5 and annas 8 against Rs.4 and annas 6 respectively admissible to grade V officers. As the difference is not considerable, Diwan Bahadur Ranga Achariyar may be declared a grade IV officer for the present purpose.
The opportunity may also be taken to notify his appointment in the Gazette. Draft below may go to Finance for acceptance.
