Sir,

Kp 50-55-9-
G.O. No. 602-05
27-6-26

I am directed to refer to the correspondence ending with your letter dated the 27th April 1925, confirming the award by the Government of Madras of a scholarship to Mr. V.R. Adige for one year with effect from the 1st July 1925, and to say that Mr. Adige, who has been pursuing his research work at the London School of Economics during the year, has now submitted an application for a short extension of his scholarship in order to enable him to complete the investigations on which he is engaged. The application is supported by Professor Gilbert Slater, M.A., D.Sc., Head of the Department of Indian Economics at the London School of Economics and Political Science, a copy of whose letter is enclosed. Mr. Adige has already received considerable assistance from the Government of Madras in the shape of a scholarship and a grant-in-aid, but in view of the nature of the work on which he is employed and of Professor Slater's report Sir Atul Chatterjee recommends that the Scholarship be extended for a period of three months with effect from the 1st August 1926.

2. I am to request that the decision of the Government of Madras may be communicated by cable.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,
Thomas Quayle.

The Joint Secretary to the High Commissioner for India.

Dear Sir,

I have to report that Mr. V.R. Adige, holder of a scholarship granted by the Government of Madras for one year, which expired on June 30th, has throughout the period worked steadily and well in the subject of his thesis "The Economic aspect of Indian handicraft industry" for the degree of D.Sc. (Econ.) in the University of London, but owing to the extent of the subject, and the multitude of sources of information to be examined, he has not yet been able to submit his thesis to the University. He hopes to complete it by next term.

In the circumstances would it be possible for him to secure an extension for a short time of his scholarship.

I have the honour to be, Dear Sir

Yours obediently,

(Sd.) GILBERT SLATER

The extension requested may be approved. The additional expenditure cannot be met from the provision in the current year's budget under "31-G-Expenditure in England-iii-scholarships". No savings under this head are anticipated. It may, however, be met from the anticipated savings under "31 G-Education-Expenditure in England-ii-sterling overseas pay". Owing to Mr. Cartwright's death and owing to the fact that I am acting as D.P.I. and consequently not drawing the full overseas pay sufficient savings can be foreseen.

Law (Education) Deptt.

The scholarship awarded to V.R. Adige in G.O. No. 602 Law (Education), dated 27-4-1925, was for one year from the 1st July 1925 and the currency of the scholarship should have expired in the ordinary course on the 30th June 1926. The High Commissioner, however, recommends the extension of the scholarship for three months from the 1st August 1926. The extension ought (strictly to be) from ~~the~~ the 1st July 1926 unless the scholarship was availed of from the 1st August 1925. Apparently, the High Commissioner disbursed the scholarship only from the 1st August 1925. To make the point clear we may approve of the extension of the scholarship by three months ~~say that the total period comes to 15 months.~~

2. The additional expenditure on account of the extension of the scholarship by three months is £ 72½ (¼ of 290). The D.P.I. says that this may be met from the provision of Rs. 41,900 under "31 g Education - Expenditure in England -ii Sterling overseas pay. It is observed that ^{this} is a ~~not~~ non-voted item, whereas the expenditure on scholarships is a voted ~~ex~~ item. Reappropriation from the former to the latter cannot be sanctioned. It may however be noted that the High Commissioner has since ^{written} return to say that it will ^{not} be possible to arrange for the admission of M.R. Ry. V. Ramaswami - one of the two candidates to whom scholarships ~~were~~ have been awarded in the current year - earlier than January 1927. Provision for his scholarship has been made for eight months from ^{July} 1926. The savings available in this provision may be utilised towards the extra expenditure involved in the extension of Adige's scholarship.

3. A draft order and a cablegram to the High Commr. are submitted. They may be sent to Finance for acceptance.
