Sir,

Ⓨ in the linked case ([illegible])

As directed in paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 461, dated 29th March 1926, I beg to submit this my request for exemption from the pause in the I. E. S. time-scale at Rs. 600 per mensem with respect to the year September 1923 to August 1924.

Ⓠ I venture to make the request because I find from G.O., No. 1313 Law (Education), dated ~~7th January 1925~~ 13th Aug. 1924 than an officer junior to me both in total service and in service in the I. E. S., Mr. H. F. Saunders, has been granted such exemption, and I find, further, from the printed List of Officers that he was confirmed in the I. E. S. subsequent to 1st December 1919.

9 ③

Though my service in the I. E. S. in a permanent vacancy counts only from the 1st September 1920, my continuous service counts from 2nd January 1919.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

[illegible] Thompson

Submitted to Government Education Department.

2. Mr. Thompson applied in June 1925 for exemption from the pause at Rs.600/- under G.O.No. 1313 Law (Education) dated 13th August 1924. He was informed that the G.O. quoted did not apply in his case. ②

3. Para 1(ii) of G.O. No. 1175 Law (Education) dated 18th August 1923 will be applicable only if he is considered an officer of Indian domicile. In another communication which is being submitted to Government separately he has applied for overseas pay on the score of his being of European domicile. ①

(C.No.2973-A) From Mr.M.S.H.Thompson dated 2-6-1926
Endtt.of the D.P.I No.N.R.C 996 C/26
dated 26-7-26

Subject:- Thompson Mr.M.S.H.--Exemption from the paus at Rs.600.

Seven out of ten officers who were promoted from the M.E,S to the I.E.S and who were affected by the pause at Rs.600 have been exempted from the pause. The common ground for exemption in six cases was that the officer concerned could not reach the maximum before his retirement and in the seventh case the exemption was granted to enable the officer to draw the maximum pay for at least two years before his retirement.

2 The three officers who have not yet been exempted are.-

(1)Mr.M.S.H.Thompson
(2)M.R.Ry.S.Kuppuswami Sastri
& (3)Mr.S.Radhakrishnan

The Government declined to grant exemption to No.(3) above on the ground that even if the exemptio be not granted, the officer could in the normal course remain for 3 years ~~and~~ on the maximum pay(Rs.1250) of the ordinary grade before his retirement. In the case of the second the exemption was declined on merits.

f 1183/28.6.23 Ⓦ

As regards Mr.Thompson it is observed that he has been drawing Rs.700 from 1st September 1925 and that ~~he will~~ on attaining the age of 55 on the 20th March 194 he would have remained in the maximum of Rs.1250 for two years and six months even though the exemp tion from the pause is not granted.

For orders whether Mr. Thompson's request for exemption from the pause should be granted.

p 3 c.f.

3 As pointed out by the D.P.I under the powers vested in them under paragraph 1(ii) of G.O.No.1175 L.E dated 18-8-23 the Govt can exempt Mr.Thompson from the pause at Rs.600 only if he is considered an officer of Indian domicile. His application for overseas pay on the score of his being of European domicile is dealt with in the linked case.

As pointed out by the D.P.I in para 3 on page 3 c.f., Govt. can exempt Mr. Thompson from the pause at Rs 600 only if he is considered an officer of Indian domicile.

Even if he is considered an officer of Indian domicile it does not seem necessary, following the principle applied in other cases, to grant him ~~the~~ concession as he could reach the maximum of the I.E.S Scale (1250) and remain on the maximum for 2½ years before retirement; and there will be no financial hardship if exemption from the pause is not granted.

The first question has not yet been settled whether Mr Thompson is of Indian domicile.

Secondly, as he will remain on the maximum for two & half years, it is doubtful if the exemption is applicable.

There was a case before in which exemption was given but only then C3 discussed the cases with me & we held that in cases where an officer is likely to enjoy full a maximum pay for some years before retirement, no exemption is needed.
