2457. With reference to question No.

1722, answered at the meeting dated

22nd March 1926, will the Hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state:-

Whether any enquiries have been made in connection with the ten students of the depressed classes who pay full fees as to why the concessions were not allowed in their cases though poverty certificates were granted.

Draft Answer.

The students were not given the concessions because the managements thought that as scholarship-holders they were not entitled to them. Concessions have since been given or promised to nine students. One student has not produced a poverty certificate.
