Q 1214. Will the hon. the ^{Member} ~~Minister~~ for Finance be pleased to state :-

(a) whether the Government are aware that increments of pay granted to the men in public service who had failed to pass the Matriculation Examination are being recovered;

(b) whether Government are taking any steps to recover increments granted to School Final men who have got into the public service without possessing the necessary qualifications - and some of whom had got only 10 or 15 per cent of the marks in English; and

(c) whether Government are aware that by this treatment those who failed to pass the Matriculation examination but who have been absorbed into public service years ago are - specially penalised while S.S.L.C. men without even the minimum qualification are having the benefits of increments?

Draft Answer.

Question No. 1214.

(a) The Government are aware of instances in which increments in time scales of pay wrongly allowed to clerks who are not qualified under article 1 of the Public Service Notification have been recovered subsequently.

(b) If the "School Final men" referred to in the question have obtained completed secondary school leaving certificates they are eligible for increments in the time scales of pay sanctioned for their posts and there is no need to recover the increments drawn by them.

There are two questions in this file.
They are dealt with below:

Question No. 1214.

Clause (a).

The Govt. have recently issued orders in regard to the grant of increments to unpassed men in the public service - Vide G.Os. No. 164, dated 4-2-25 and No. 1478 dated 25-8-25. The Revenue Dept. may be requested to state whether cases have been brought to their notice in which increments granted to unpassed men have been recovered.

Clause (b)

Persons employed in Government service who hold completed S.S.I. Certificates are not unpassed men, but are persons qualified under Article 1 of the Public Service Notification and as such, they are eligible for increments in the time-scale of pay ^{sanctioned} for the post ~~to which they are holding~~.

Question No. 1215.

Clauses (a) and (b).

Unpassed men in public service, ~~even though~~ ^{passed} they have ~~minimum minimum minimum~~ special tests, can draw only the minimum pay of the post which they hold, until they are specifically exempted from the provisions of Article 1 of the public service notification.

2. Before a draft answer is put up the remarks of the Revenue Department may be invited U.O. on the question.

Q. No. 1214 - clause (a)

Memorials were received by Govt

in May & June last from some unpassed clerks in South Kanara & Malabar to the effect that for 15 & 13 months respectively increments drawn by them were recovered from them under the orders of the Bd of Revenue that they ^{sums so recovered} might be refunded to them. The Govt in Q. No. 1343 Revd. 26-8-25 declined to interfere on their behalf.

2. This Dept. may agree with the ^{note} ~~remission~~ note of Law (Edn) at p. 3 infra and (the file returns) to their Dept.

Increment to unpassed men who have passed Departmental Special Tests.

*986 Q.—Mr. T. ADINARAYANA CHETTIYAR: Will the hon. the Member for Revenue be pleased to state—

(a) whether the Government are aware that several unpassed men, now in public service, have since qualified themselves by passing Departmental Special Tests, as per Fort St. George Gazette notification, Part I-B, page 701, dated 29th June 1921; and

(b) whether it is the intention of Government that these clerks who have qualified themselves as above should not be given any increment of pay?

A.—(a) & (b) Clerks who are not qualified under article 1 of the Public Service Notification are not eligible for increments in time-scale of pay unless they have been specifically exempted from the provision of this article by competent authority. The passing of departmental special tests does not dispense with the need for this exemption.
