Department.

Sir,

The sanction accorded in G.O.No. 130 Law (Education) dated 28th January 1925 for the continuance of the L.T class attached to the St. Joseph's College, Trichinopoly expires on 31st March 1926. The Principal of the St. Joseph's College reports that the institution has on its rolls 40 stipendiaries and 8 non-stipendiaries under training during the current year, and that the number of applications for admission to the class always largely in excess of the sanctioned strength and -- requests that the class may be permitted to be continued for another year. I recommend therefore that the class may be continued for another year from 1st April 1926.
