LAW (EDUCATION)

Department.

Sir,

The Principal, Teachers' College, Saidapet reports that M.R. Ry P. Shankunni Avl., officiating as Vice Principal of the college in the Indian Educational Service is ill and is applying for leave for a month or six weeks. With a view to carrying on the work of the college during the absence of Mr. P. Shankunni, I have the honour to recommend that the Indian Educational Service post may be kept in abeyance and that a temporary post in the Subordinate Educational Service (Collegiate branch) on Rs 125 may be created instead until 28th February 1926. I shall apply for the continuance of the post in question if on receipt of the medical certificate it is found necessary to do so.

2. The expenditure can be met from the anticipated savings in the current year's budget under "31 A-d-Education-University-Government Professional Colleges-III-Teachers' Colleges-Pay of Establishment-Voted."

3. In anticipation of the approval of my recommendation I am making the necessary postings in order that the college work may not suffer.

4. The leave application of Mr. Shankunni will be submitted on receipt.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A Rama Ray

(C.No.193-A) from the D.P.I. C.No.750/26 d/18-1-26.

Subject:- Vice Principalship, Teachers' College, Saidapet.

The Government of India have stated that the sanction of the Secretary of State is necessary to the keeping in abeyance temporarily of posts in the I.E.S. A representation has been addressed to that Government in regard to the above decision.

2. It is not ^{now} permissible for the local Govt. to issue a formal order holding the post of Vice-Principal Teachers' College, Saidapet in abeyance. The post may however remain unfilled while Mr. Shankunni is on leave.

3. The D.P.I suggests the creation of a temporary post on Rs 125/- a month in the S.E.S. (Collegiate Branch) during the absence on leave of Mr. Shankunni. Rule 3 under Art: 77 of the C.S.R. provides that 'it is irregular to create a temporary appointment for the performance of specific duties for which a permanent appointment already exists'. It is doubtful whether the above rule is still in force after the coming into force of the Fundamental Rules. Besides, the new officer in the S.E.S. will perform only some of the lecturing duties of the Vice-Principal and cannot be considered as replacing the Vice-Principal. It is doubtful whether the present case falls within the scope of rule 3 under Article 77 of the C.S.R., assuming that it is still in force.

4. The A.G. may be consulted (U.O.) whether the Government may create a post in the S.E.S. temporarily without formally keeping in abeyance the post of Vice-Principal.

Strictly speaking the Secretary of State's sanction is necessary to a post in All-India Service being left unfilled or kept in abeyance for any period.

As the period in this instance is short, I do not propose to raise an objection to Government's creating a temporary post in the S.E.S. while Mr. Shankunni is on leave.

Possibly however the Government of Madras may wish to ask for general powers to make such temporary arrangements, say, up to 3 months at any one time. A similar situation to this arises when posts of Sub Collector in the I.C.S. are left vacant.
