Station Camp Madras. Dated the 15th February 1926

From (Name) Lieut-Col. J.P. Cameron, C.I.E., I.M.S.,

(Designation) Inspector-General of Reformatory Schools.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras

Law (General) Department.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 1056 Law (Education) dated the 20th June 1925, I have the honour to report that the two scales of diet - Medium, 20 ozs. and small 18 Ozs. - introduced as an experimental measure in the Reformatory School, Chingleput, has been tried and may safely be introduced as a permanent measure. The same may also be made applicable to the Junior Certified School, Ranipet. I am of opinion, however, that the bigger scale of diet, viz., 22 ozs. should also be retained and issued to such of the growing boys who require to be put on this scale on the definite recommendation of the Medical Officer.

2. As regards clothing, the subject is still under correspondence with the Superintendent, Borstal School, Tanjore and an uniform scale of clothing and bedding will be recommended for the three schools.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Lieut-Col. I.M.S.,
Inspector-General of Reformatory Schools.

Extract from para 3 of the Inspection notes of the Reformatory and Senior certified School, Chingleput.

" As regards the complaints of insufficient food, I do not think the boys are by any means starved. It must be understood however that growing boys who are healthy have large appetites and require lots of food—far more than an adult. I understand that only small and medium scales of diet are given at present and that the so-called big scale is not used at all. ^{own} My opinion is that the question of giving the big scale of diet to selected boys should be left entirely to the Medical Officer. If he considers that any of the bigger boys in the school require more food than the medium scale of diet permits then he is at liberty to prescribe the big scale."

note:

The S.G.'s proposals may be accepted. As it is proposed to retain all the three scales of diet, it does not seem necessary to amend rule 26(i) of the children Act rules.
