Enclosures.

FROM

THE REGISTRAR,

University of Madras.

To

The Secretary to Government,

Law (Education) Department,

Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

At its meeting held on the 9th instant, the Syndicate considered G.O. No.1601 Law (Edn)., dated 12th September 1925, sanctioning the retention of the services of M.R.Ry. T.K. Duraiswami Aiyar Avl., M.A., L.T., by the University for a further period from 12th July 1925 to 30th June 1926 and requesting the Syndicate to take steps to secure the services of a suitable candidate outside the Government Educational Department for carrying on the duties of the Assistant Professor of Economics after the 30th June 1926. The Syndicate considers that owing to the absence of Dr. John Matthai it is most desirable to retain the services of the present Acting Professor. It has accordingly resolved that the Government be requested to permit the University to retain the services of Mr. T.K. Duraiswami Aiyar until March 1927, and I am directed to request that the Government will be pleased to pass orders sanctioning the extension of Mr. Duraiswami Aiyar's services till March 1927. The favour of early orders is requested.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

W. K. M. S. S.
REGISTRAR.

[No. 245A] from the Registrar, Madras University
No. 700 of 21.1.1926

Subject: Retention of the services of Mrs. T. K. Duraishwami Ayyar in the Economics Department of the University of Madras

In G.O. no. 1601 (Law Edn), of 12.9.25 the Government sanctioned the retention of the services of Mrs. T. K.
Duraishwami^{ayyar} as Asst Professor of Economics under the University of Madras till the 30th June 1926. In that order, the Syndicate was requested to take steps to secure the services of a suitable officer outside the Educational Department for carrying on the duties of the Asst Professor beyond that date. The Syndicate has now addressed Government for sanction to the retention of ^[the services of] Mrs.
Duraishwami Ayyar ~~services of~~ ~~Mrs. T. K. Duraishwami Ayyar~~, (who is now officiating as Professor during the absence of Dr. Matthai) till March 1927.
The Syndicate is being separately informed that they must make

Separate file

other arrangements to recruit a whole time professor for the Economics department.

The question is one of some difficulty as the University has not decided on its policy with regard to the Economics side.

2. The present arrangement is more or less a makeshift. The Chief Professor is a part-time officer and he will be away from this Presidency till April 1927. Mr Doraiswami Ayyar is ^{ago} (full-time) ~~lecture~~ professor.

3. I have no doubt that the Economics side of the University requires two full-time professors. The Chief Professor should ~~be~~ be a ~~specialist~~ specialist in rural economics, co-operation (or rather, reconstitute) etc and continue the village studies which Dr Gilbert Slater commenced.

The other Professor - the assistant - should ~~be~~ be a specialist in currency & banking and public finance.

4. I do not know whether the University is prepared to recruit a full-time Chief professor and if so, when. Even supposing a full-time professor is appointed, it will be some months before he can ~~be~~ acquaint himself with the work so far done and the problems to which he has to address himself. In the interests of the Department and of the continuity of the work, I think it necessary that Mr Doraiswami Ayyar should continue with the University till March 1927 - i.e. for about one year. I recommend that the University's application be granted and that the Un^y be asked, in the meantime, to take steps to place the Dept on a sound footing.

This is not an urgent case, the existing sanction extends up to June 1926.

In May '07 Govt proposed to the University to secure the services of a suitable candidate outside the Govt Dept. of Carving in the duties of the Economic Professor.
Since Dr. Gillbert Slater left the University, the Economic Department is left in an inefficient state. The University has an officer who who cannot be a University Professor he is always on the fence.

There are many able men available not who did research work in Oxford & London Universities and obtained high proficiency. The University ought to choose from among these specialists or recruit one from British Universities. There is no definite policy of the University. A chequer and stop-gap arrangement is very damaging to the Department.

In a recent ^{note} extending the term of Dr. Mathai, the University has requested to take steps to recruit a proper person and ^{make it} ~~not~~ ^{not} ~~leaf~~ ^{leaf} ~~should~~ ^{should} not depend upon the views of the department. It is a wrong policy of Government to lead departmental men of the purpose, ~~hence~~ ^{hence} the University in considering the question since Dr Slater left Madras. He did the work very efficiently single-handed and no assistant was required. A full-time Professor is most needed. Unless I know the definite policy of the University in the matter suggested above and the steps taken to recruit a proper person outside the department, I am not able to state my opinion in the case. The University may be requested to state definitely its views on the two points.

No. 1246

Dear sir,

I am in receipt of your D.O. No. 4472 A/25-4, dated 2nd February 1926, and I am thankful to Government for the suggestions made. Personally I think that the proposed arrangement is a desirable one; and I shall place the letter before the Syndicate on the 13th of this month. The proposal will add about Rs 5,000 to the present annual cost of the Department; and the Government will, I presume, be pleased to make the additional grant.

Yours sincerely,

M. R. Rao Bahadur

In continuation of my D.O. No. 1246 dated the 6th instant, in reply to your D.O. No. 4472 A/25-4 dated the 2nd idem, I write to inform you that the Syndicate has carefully considered your D.O. under reply and has requested me to reply to you in the following terms:

The Syndicate concurs with the Government in their recommendation that a full-time Professor of Indian Economics should be appointed at an early date and will endeavour, as soon as circumstances permit, to secure the services of a full-time Professor in this subject. The University will avoid, as far as possible, indenting on Government servants in making an appointment of this nature.

The services of Mr. T.K. Duraiswami Aiyar have been asked, in a previous communication to Government, to be extended until the end of March 1927. It is hoped that the Government will see their way to meeting this request, as it will take some time to appoint a Professor and acquaint him with his duties and in the meantime a person of Mr. T.K. Duraiswami Aiyar's experience will be essential in the interests of the Department.

Yours sincerely,

R. Venkata Ratnam
