C. No. 635 of 26.

Station MADRAS, Dated the 19th February 1926.

From (Name) R. Littlehales, Esq., M. A.,
(Designation) Commissioner for Government Examinations.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
LAW (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to request that, in the circumstances explained hereunder, Government will be pleased to relax the conditions imposed in paragraphs 2 to 5 of G.O.No.493, Public, dated 18th May 1925, so far as the employment in this office of temporary clerks for urgent seasonal work connected with the several Government Examinations, is concerned.

2. In connection with the Government Examinations held in March and April of every year, it is usual to employ temporary clerks-usually about 10 in number - ordinarily from December to April. These clerks attend to the preparation of nominal rolls, proof-reading and proof-correction, packing and despatch of articles of stationery to nearly 600 centres, preparation of covers for putting in copies of question papers, despatch of instructions to Superintendents, &c., and other routine work connected with the examinations. In pursuance of the instructions issued in paragraph 2 of G.O. No.493, Public, dated 18th May 1925, I offered the appointments of temporary clerks to all the 25 candidates in the current list of the Staff Selection Board, but it was not until the 18th January that I could get one; the second joined only on 1st February 1926. Of the remaining 23 persons, seven reported that they were employed elsewhere, one that he was expecting an offer from another office, two declined the offer, while 13 did not reply at all. As all urgent work had been already delayed and as there was no prospect of securing the services of any more candidates on the waiting list, I was, in view of the urgency of the case, obliged to appoint persons who were not on the waiting list and I have made a report of this to the Secretary, Staff Selection Board.

3. Candidates on the list of the Staff Selection Board do not seem to be keen on taking up temporary appointments in this office, as they are only for short periods and as they carry a pay of only Rs.35/- per mensem. Even if the pay be raised to Rs.40/- per mensem, I doubt whether it will be sufficiently attractive to the candidates on the list of the Staff Selection Board, apart from the fact that the candidates who can be secured for Rs.35/- are sufficiently qualified for the kind of work for which they are employed. If the procedure laid down in paragraphs 2 to 5 of the Government Order referred to in paragraph 1 supra is to be followed in respect of the ~~re~~appointments also, I am afraid that the arrangements for the conduct of the various Government examinations will be considerably delayed and that confusion and mistakes will occur, since the permanent staff will endeavour to do more work than it is capable of doing, leaving their normal work in arrears in an endeavour to complete the work in connection with examinations, which is always of an urgent nature, I therefore recommend that the conditions as regards the recruitment of clerks for offices in the Madras city, be not enforced so far as temporary clerks employed by this office for examination work for short periods is concerned. The procedure laid down in the Government Order will, however, be followed in respect of permanent and acting appointments.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
R. Krishnakumar Bhonsle
for COMMISSIONER.
