Sir,

Miss A. Janaki Ammal, the selection grade Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon attached to the Queen Mary's College etc Madras, on joining duty at the Queen Mary's College, Madras, in September 1925 was allotted two small rooms and a bath room in the College buildings as her quarters; but finding the rooms to be too small and inconvenient the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon occupied two other more spacious rooms with the permission of the Principal of the College. The Executive Engineer, South Presidency Division, has fixed the normal rent at Rs. 26/- per mensem for the rooms previously occupied by her and at Rs. 39/- per mensem for the accommodation now given to her. Under Fundamental Rule 45 (b), the occupant of Government quarters is liable to pay either the normal rent of the quarters or 10% of her salary whichever is less. The Executive Engineer, South Presidency Division, states that the rules regarding the recovery of house rent on the 10% basis is applicable only to cases of houses specifically built for the use of particular officers who are required to live in them during the tenure of their charges of particular posts and that without the special sanction of Government the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon is not entitled to the concessional rate of recovery of rent on the 10% basis of her pay. As the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon cannot be expected to pay a rent of Rs.39/- per mensem out of her pay of Rs.200/- per mensem and as she is required to live in the premises in the interests of the students of the College, it is requested that Government will kindly order the recovery of rent from the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon at 10% of her emoluments.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

T. K. S. S. S.

Major-General J.M.S.,

Surgeon-General with the Government of Subject : - Rent for the quarters occupied by the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon attached to the Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras.

Rule 45(b) of M.C.F.R.
Rule 45(b) ibid
In G.O.No. 593 Law (Education), dated 15th April 1924 the Govt. sanctioned the employment of a Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon for attendance on the inmates of the hostels attached to the Queen Mary's College for Women, Madras, and the Lady Willingdon Training College for Women, Madras. It was directed that the Sub Assistant Surgeon should be allotted an office room in the premises of the Queen Mary's College.

p. 38 of Govt. 593 15.4.24
memo up 1 of Govt. 1608 18.10.24
As it was considered desirable to provide quarters in the Queen Mary's College for the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon, the usual rent being collected, the Director was asked to report whether suitable accommodation could be found for her in the college. He reported that the following accommodation could be provided for an unmarried woman :-

(1) A bed and sitting room measuring 26-9 x 12-3 x 12½ ft.

(2) A bath room measuring 9.6 x 8.3 x 9.9 ft.

The first Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon who took charge on the 24th June 1924 was a married woman and she was not willing to reside in the premises of the Queen Mary's College. The question of providing accommodation for the Sub Assistant Surgeon did not, therefore, arise and was left over for consideration later on, if necessary.

2. The present Sub Assistant Surgeon who joined duty in September 1925 is an unmarried woman. Her pay is Rs. 200 a month. (selection grade) and she gets a Presidency allowance of Rs. 25 a month. She was was allowed to occupy two small rooms and a bath room at first, but, as she found them small and inconvenient, she has been permitted by the Principal of the College to occupy two other more spacious rooms. The normal rent for the rooms originally allotted to her and that for the rooms now occupied by her are Rs. 26 a month and Rs. 39 a month respectively.

The Surgeon General recommends that the Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon may be allowed to pay rent for her quarters at ten per cent of her emoluments, (Rs. 22-8-0) instead of the normal rent of Rs. 39, as she is required to live in the premises of the college in the interests of the students and as Rs. 39/- is too much for her to pay out of her pay of Rs. 200/-. The D.P.I. has forwarded the letter.

3. It may be noted that, while in 1924 it was proposed to allot to an unmarried woman a bed and sitting room and a bath room involving a normal rent of Rs. 16½ a month, the present Sub assistant surgeon was first given two rooms and a bath room involving a standard rent of Rs. 26 a month. In the absence of any details about the two rooms actually given, it is not possible to compare their extent with that of the single room proposed in 1924. It is reported that these two rooms, having been found small and inconvenient, the Sub Assistant Surgeon is now occupying two bigger rooms whose standard rent is fixed at Rs. 39 a month. In these circumstances it is submitted that the necessity for the more spacious rooms may be admitted. It is presumed that no other convenient rooms with a lower rent are available.

4. As regards the rent payable the Executive Engineer holds that the standard rent is ordinarily leviable as the houses have not been specifically built for the use of the particular officer. In another similar case, that of the Sergeant in the same college, the Finance Department has agreed to the levy of rent on 10% basis, if the building in question cannot be put to better use and is specifically allotted to the Sergeant. The same principle may be applied to the present case, especially as the Sub Assistant Surgeon is required to live in the premises in the interests of the college students. Finance may be asked to agree to this.

Finance (CSR)

The Lady Sub Assistant Surgeon in the present case is drawing a pay of Rs 200/a month (selection grade) plus a presidency allowance of Rs 25/- . She is an unmarried lady. She has been permitted to occupy quarters in the Queen Mary's college the normal rent of which is Rs 39 p.m. It is proposed to reduce from her rent at Rs 22½ p.m on the 10% basis.

The original idea was to limit the quarters for an unmarried lady to a portion on which the the standard rent would work out to only Rs 16-8-0 p.m. The question for consideration at present is whether the increase from Rs 16-8-0 to Rs 39 should be permitted when on the 10% basis we can reach only Rs 22½ from the lady. Finance need not object on the assumption that Law Eon have satisfied themselves that it is necessary to allow her the use of the whole extent proposed.
