To reduce the allotment of Rs.7,600 for

Inspection- European by

(To discuss about the necessity of this officer and his establishment).

Re.1/-

Law (Education) Department

The necessity for the employment of a separate inspecting staff for European schools has been questioned by non-official members of the Legislative Council in the course of the budget debates in previous years. The arguments advanced in favour of the retention of the separate staff are the following:--

- (1) European schools ~~separate~~ ^{differs} from Indian schools in many respects--curricula, examination etc.
- (2) Special qualifications are required ~~of~~ ^{by} the Inspector of European schools and his staff.
- (3) Inspectors of Indian schools are now largely Indians, many of whom have no knowledge of the needs of Europeans and of the ideals of European education.
- (4) The work devolving on the Inspector of European schools is not less than that of an Inspector of ~~the~~ Indian Schools; on the other hand, it is more.

- (5) Muhammadan schools and schools for girls, which are analogous, have separate inspecting staff.

2. The following statement shows the number of schools inspected by the Inspector of European schools and the strength in them:--

European schools on the 31st March 1925.
	No. of schools.	Total no of pupils	Europeans	Indians
High--boys	12	2,331	2,103	228
