R.C.No. 316-cl/25 dated 6-3-1926.

Sir,

* As I am now 6 months to retiring I have the honour to request that the sanction of the Government may be obtained to a condonation of a shortage in my service of one month and eight days in order that I may count 24 complete years of service for purposes of calculating my pension.

2. In this connection I may state in the year 1914, I was transferred from the Presidency Training School to the inspecting branch in April just before the school closed for the summer vacation and as a consequence, I was kept working all through the summer vacation.

3. Again in 1915 a similar transfer took place, and I was again deprived of my summer holidays in the month of May, and thereafter transferred to the Rangoon Normal School which opened in June, and thus was working all through the year without any vacation at all.

4. Again in 1920, when I was in charge of the Queen Mary High School, I was transferred to the Superior Inspecting Branch in May. The transfer order reaching me on the 7th, just as the school closed and for a third time I was deprived of my summer vacation. I have therefore some claim to a request for an extension of my service for a period of one month and eight days which is less than the summer vacation of which I was three times deprived. Instead of an extension of my service by one month and eight days, my request for a condonation of the same period may be favourably considered by Government.

Further I would add that before I retire, I shall have put in 30 years of service in India, two in the school in which I was educated, and 4 in the Bombay and Punjab Governments in appointments in which I could not be confirmed as the permanent incumbents held a lien on these posts, and were either lent to Native States or on long leave in England. My pensionable service is therefore already short by 6 years, and I do not wish to lose another year because it is short by one month and eight days. I have also more than a year's leave on full average pay due to me and am unable to take it because such leave does not count as a part of the three years for which average emoluments will be calculated.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,
