Sir,

Law (Education) Department.

Under the rules framed under section 42(2) of the Madras Elementary Education of 1920, chapter III, -- District Educational Councils are authorised to sanction grants for furniture, books and appliances to aided Elementary schools. The management while obtaining certain articles from other places than their own have to incur certain expenditure on postage, packing charges, money order commission, railway charges and etc... As it is not specifically provided in the rules whether or not such charges are admissible, I have the honour to request you to be so good as to obtain a ruling of the Government on the point raised herein.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
Chitarama Rao

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

LAW (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir.

In resubmitting herewith Government endorsement 529 A-1, dated 26th February 1926, I have the honour to state as follows:-

2. Rule 2 of the equipment grant rules framed under section 42(2) of the Madras Elementary Education Act of 1920 provides that grants not exceeding one half of the total cost may be given. The term total cost includes the incidental expenses referred to by the President.

It was on this principle that equipment grants were sanctioned in the ~~first~~ ^{first} Act days.

3. Incidental charges such as architect's fees, Engineers fees, conveyance charges etc are permissible in the case of building grants with reference to G.O.No. 1652 Law

p. 6 of G.O. 208 Lr 24.2.22

(K)

(U)

4. In these circumstances no separate ruling is required. The District Educational Council may be informed that the incidental charges may be accepted provided the grant claimed at the time of payment does not exceed the sanctioned or approved grant.
