Madras,

12th March 1926.

To

M.R. Ry Rao Bahadur V.T. Krishnama Chariar, Avl., C.I.E.,

Law (Education) Department,

Fort St. George.

Dear Sir,

In reply to your letter No.D.O.682-C/26-1, dated 10th Instant, I beg to say that the motion referred to therein is for the purpose of raising the question of The Hon'ble Minister's policy towards Commercial Education.

Yours sincerely,

C. Gopala Menon.

Law (Education) Deptt.

The M.L.C. wants to raise the policy of Government plank

towards commercial education. In connection with the budget for 1925-26 Mr. C.V. Venkataramana Ayyangar tabled a motion to raise the same point, and in that connection it was noted that the Institute of Commerce was established primarily for 1-2 q- A.O. No. 610 DE 27.4.25

for offering facilities to people to qualify themselves for the profession of auditing. This institution prepares students for the G.D.A. Examination of the Accountancy Diploma

Board, Bombay, and in addition also coaches up pupils for the Government Technical Examinations. The School of Commerce,

Calicut, does only the latter function and offers instruction in the following subjects:-

- (1) Book-keeping
- (2) Theory and Practice of Commerce or Commercial Law & Practice
- (3) Banking and Political Economy
- (4) Commercial Geography
- (5) Shorthand (Pitman's)
- (6) Typewriting.

~~The Government have sanctioned in 1925-26 the opening of~~

~~other school of commerce, similar to the one at Calicut,~~

~~Vizagapatam.~~

A pass in the technical examinations qualifies candidates for appointments as typists, Short-hand writers and commercial teachers in Government service and is generally a passport for appointment in banks and commercial firms.

It may be noted that the Committee on Technical and Industrial Education presided over by Mr. Couchman examined the existing facilities for industrial and technical education in the Presidency and recommended that

(i) the present Institute of Commerce, Madras, should be developed into a Commercial College;

(ii) it is desirable to include Commerce as an optional subject of the Intermediate course;

(iii) the present Commercial school at Calicut should be raised to the Intermediate grade;

(iv) two more commercial schools should be started - one in the North of the Presidency and one in the south, - on the model of the present school at Calicut.

The first two suggestions were remitted to the Madras

University. According to the last suggestion the Government sanctioned in 1925-26 the opening of a school of commerce in Vizagapatam on the model of the one at Calicut. The question of opening another school in the south is only a matter of finance.

It may also be noted that in connection with the Andhra University it is the intention to open a technological institute and a commercial college.
