Why not throw it open for election.

A.P.P. (atrs).
26.4.26.

When Mr. Crofton's appointment as President of the D.E.C., the Nilgiris, was before Govt in 1926, the Honble the Minister raised the question whether a non-official, e.g. a M.L.C. representing the Nilgiris, might not be appointed as the President? For the notes written in that connection, please see pages 3 to 5 of G.O. N. 697, Law (Ed.), of 7.5.26. None of the M.L.C.'s representing the Nilgiris was on the St. Edl. Council at that time and it was not ^{also} possible to nominate one of the M.L.C.'s as a member of the Council unless its constitution was amended. The Honble the Minister preferred to throw the Presidentship open for election, if no suitable non-official was available for appointment as President.
