Stipends for training students (Women's branch) in Government Training schools, Western Circle.

*1801 Q.—MR. J. A. SALDANHA: Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) the amount provided for stipends for training students (Women's branch) in the Government Training schools in the Western Circle in 1924-25 and 1925-26;

(b) the several women's Government training schools in the same circle among which stipends were distributed in 1924-25 and 1925-26 and the amount so distributed in each;

(c) the strength of each school and the maximum number of various stipends provided for each of the schools in those years;

(d) in how many cases the maxima of the stipends were allowed and in how many cases less amounts were allowed, and for what reasons; and

(e) whether fines were imposed on those drawing the stipends, or reductions made and if so up to what amount in each year and on what grounds?

(c) & (d) A statement^a containing the information is appended.

(e) According to the information available with the Inspectress no fines were imposed on any of the students either in 1924-25 or in 1925-26 nor were stipends withheld.

Mr. R. VEERIAN:—“With reference to clauses (a) to (d), may I know whether they fix the number of stipends in each training school?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“The amount is fixed and therefore the number of scholarships available will be limited.”

Mr. R. VEERIAN:—“May I know whether the stipends go to particular communities as Muhammadans, Christians, etc.?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“They go to those students who come under the rules.”

Mr. R. VEERIAN:—“My own information is that in the Coimbatore Training school these stipends go to Indian Christians though there are other women coming forward. May I know whether they fix some such rule so that there may not be any difference in giving these stipends to particular communities?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“I think there is nothing done with reference to any particular community. If there is anything and if the attention of the Government is drawn to it, Government will direct their attention to it.”
