DEMAND XIX -- EDUCATION (TRANSFERRED)

Mr D. Manjappa Heggade.

p.242 407

To reduce the allotment of Rs. 14,63,100 for Inspection by Rs. 100/-
(To ventilate the grievances of the elementary school teachers and teacher-managers).

Law (Education) Department.

As the reduction is proposed in respect of inspection, it is presumed that the complaint is against the Inspector.
ON

It is not clear what the grievances of elementary school teachers and teacher managers have against the inspecting officers. The rules for the inspection of elementary schools are laid down in paragraphs 78 to 104 of the Inspection Code. Attention is particularly solicited to the following extracts from the Code:—

" Paragraph 78 : - Officers should so conduct themselves " in a school that their behaviour may be a model for the " teachers. They will consequently be as considerate of the " feelings of teachers and pupils as of their own dignity
" and avoid manifestations of impatience and dissatisfac" tion. They will on no account smoke or chew betel during " inspection.

" Paragraph 83-Relations of inspecting officers with " managers.

" Cordial cooperation of inspecting officers with
" the managers is essential for the welfare of the schools.
" Great care should be taken to avoid all appearance of " dictating orders to managers or teachers in non-depart" mental schools. It should be made quite clear that atten" tion to suggestions and remedying of defects (within " reasonable limits) is a necessary condition of continuance " of recognition or aid. Failure on the manager's part " to co-operate with the department is no reason for anger " or discourteous words.

" Paragraph 101-The inspection Book.

" - All remarks should be concise, clear, definite, courteous and in the vernacular with which the headmaster is best acquainted.

If any inspecting officer is not courteous in his conduct, it is open to the manager or teacher concerned to prefer a complaint to the District Educational Officer ~~concerned~~.

3. Under the rules framed under the Elementary Education Act, the ~~local~~ determination of grants payable to a school rests with the District Educational Council. The inspecting officers only make their recommendations to the District Educational Council. If any reduction is proposed by the inspecting officer in the amount of grant admissible to a school, the reasons have to be communicated to the management. The management is at liberty to appeal to the District Educational Council against the recommendation of the inspecting officer.
