FROM

THE REGISTRAR,

University of Madras.

To

The Private Secretary to His Excellency

the Governor of Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour, by direction of the Syndicate, to forward herewith for the assent of His Excellency the Chancellor under Section 30(5) of the Madras University Act, 1923, the accompanying statutes relating to Leave and leave allowances to Teachers of the University, approved by the Senate at its adjourned meeting held on the 18th March 1926 for incorporation as Laws 21 et seq. of Chapter XX of the Laws, the last Law thereof being renumbered.

I am to add that in August 1924 the Academic Council appointed a Committee for the purpose of making proposals as to the method of selection, the conditions of appointment and the emoluments of Teachers of the University. The Committee recommended, among other things, a set of laws relating to leave and leave allowances which were approved by the Academic Council at its meeting held on 11th December 1925. The Syndicate approved of these Laws and recommended them to the Senate for adoption.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Laws relating to leave and leave allowances to Teachers of the University, adopted by the Senate, for incorporation as Law 21
et seq of Chapter XX of the Laws of the University.

- (1) Leave cannot be claimed as of right ; and when the exigencies of the University so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it, viz., the Syndicate.
- (2) Casual leave may be granted for not more than five days at a time, including holidays or fifteen days in all in an academic year.
- (3) Ordinary leave on half salary will be earned by a teacher of the University at the rate of one month for every academic year, including the summer vacation, with the privilege of accumulating such leave up to a maximum period of six months.
- (4) Ordinary leave may be combined with the vacation, but the combined leave shall not exceed six months in all.
- (5) The Syndicate may grant study leave to University teachers as occasion arises, on such terms as may to it seem necessary in each case.
- (6) Salary during leave will be paid in rupees in India, or at the current rate of exchange in London when the leave is taken out of India.
- (7) Leave not earned may be granted to a teacher subject to the following conditions :—
 - (a) On medical certificate on half pay up to a maximum period of 2 years.
 - (b) Otherwise than on medical certificate for not more than three months at any one time, and one year in the whole service, without allowances.
