Pay of teachers transferred from Government elementary girls' schools to local bodies.

* 1873 Q.—Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR: Will the hon. the Minister for Education be pleased to state—

(a) the number of teachers who held permanent pensionable appointments in the Government elementary schools for girls and whose services were transferred along with their schools to the local bodies from 1921 and onwards;

(b) whether the teachers concerned were consulted and agreed to such transfer of their services;

(c) whether the time-scales of pay of Rs. 20—1—30 for lower elementary grade teachers, of Rs. 25—1—50 for higher elementary grade teachers, and of Rs. 30—2—50—1—60 for secondary grade teachers, which were introduced in the case of all teachers who continued to be in the schools under Government management, were not extended to their colleagues in the schools transferred to local bodies; and if not, why not;

(d) whether the latter teachers are still considered to hold pensionable appointments and their service after their transfer to local bodies counts for pension;

(e) whether a memorial has been received from the teachers under reference praying that the time-scales introduced in the Government schools should be extended to them and that, to enable the local bodies to do so, the Government should help them with reasonable grants; and

(f) if so, the orders of the Government thereon?

A.—(a) & (b) The Government have no information.

(c) No time-scale of pay was sanctioned by Government for teachers in elementary schools for girls transferred to the control of local bodies.

(d) Yes.

(e) Yes.

(f) The local bodies concerned were informed that it was open to them to raise the salaries of the teachers if the additional expenditure involved can be met from their own funds.

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—“Sir, when the teachers were transferred to the local bodies without their consent, did not the Government consider it necessary to see that their emoluments continued the same?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“It was open to the teachers to resign if they did not like to be transferred.”

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—“Were they given the option to retire immediately and draw any pension they were eligible for?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“When they did not like the conditions of service under the local bodies, it was open to them to exercise their discretion either way at the time of the transfer.”

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—“Of course they could have resigned, but were they given the right to a pension or would they have forfeited their right to it by their resignation?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“If they were qualified for the pension, they would be entitled to it.”

29th March 1926

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—“It is evident that they would not have put in 25 or 30 years' service; they might have put in 10 years. If their services ceased for reasons beyond their control ordinarily they would be entitled to proportionate pension. I wish to know whether these teachers were allowed the option to retire on the pensions that they could have got at that time.”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“Certainly, they have the option whether to continue to be teachers under the local boards or retire from service. If they retired and applied for a pension, the case would be one for consideration under the rules. But as it is, I cannot answer hypothetical cases.”

Mr. A. RANGANATHA MUDALIYAR:—“It is the case of teachers whose pay was raised by the local bodies after their transfer and the question is, will the Government give them pension on the new scale of pay or on the scale that they would be drawing on the date of their transfer?”

The hon. Rao Bahadur Sir A. P. PATRO:—“It is open to the local body to contribute pension charges but the liability of the Government is only to the extent that it was at the time when the transfer was made.”
