DEMAND XIX - EDUCATION (TRANSFERRED).

Mr. R. Srinivasa Ayyangar:

To reduce the allotment of Rs. 3,30,000 for pay of establishments by

(To urge the necessity of improving the pay and prospects of Pandits employed in Colleges and High Schools).

Rs. 100

Law (Education) Department.

Prior to the revision of the pay of the non-gazetted services the pay of Pandits in Government institutions ranged from Rs. 30 to Rs. 100.

Rs. 100, besides the temporary additions to pay. These rates were fixed in a general revision of the pay of Pandits in Government institutions sanctioned in 1912 in pursuance of a resolution passed by the Legislative Council by Mr. (now Dr. B. R. Ambedkar) Pillai. In 1920 when the revision of the scales of pay of the non-gazetted services was under the consideration of the Reforms Commissioner, the Pandits submitted memorials praying that the Pandits and Munshis employed in high schools might be given pay ranging from Rs. 70 to Rs. 150 and that those employed in colleges might be given pay ranging from Rs. 100 to Rs. 200. The Reforms Commissioner, however, recommended that the pay of Pandits might be divided into the following grades: --

- Rs. 40-2-50 For Secondary schools.
- Rs. 50-3-65 For Secondary grade colleges.
- Rs. 75-4-95 and For first grade colleges.
- Rs. 100-5-125

The Reforms Commissioner's recommendation was accepted.

accepted by Government. The general principle which was followed in the revision of pay of the non-gazetted services was to round off the pay and temporary allowances drawn prior to revision. This was followed

The Reform Commission note, in this specific case, that there was no suggestion that suitable men could not be obtained in the case of Pandits. There has been no complaint since that the sanctioned rates of pay are inadequate to attract the right type of Pandits.

2. The pay of Pandits in schools under private management and under local bodies is a matter to be decided by the management and local bodies concerned.

3. During the budget debates of last year, Mr. Anjaneyulu brought forward a similar token motion. In the course of his reply the Hon'ble the Minister stated that, as the scales of pay for the Pandits had been ~~fixed~~ only recently, it would be impracticable to accept the mover's proposal, but that, if any general revision of the pay of the non-gazetted services was taken up, the case of the Pandits would be pressed for generous treatment. The motion was eventually withdrawn.

4. No general revision of the pay of the non-gazetted services is now under contemplation, and the case of the Pandits will not apparently be considered apart from that of other non-gazetted Government servants.
