Communicating to the Director of Public Instruction and the Accountant-General sanction of the Secretary of State to the allowance attached to the Professorship of Medical Jurisprudence being granted, under certain conditions, to any officer performing the duty of Professor of Materia Medica and to retrospective effect being given to this arrangement in the case of Major Crawford, I.M.S.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From R. NATHAN, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Medical), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, dated Calcutta, the 22nd February 1900, No. 376.

In continuation of the letter from this department, No. 1893, dated the 13th November 1899, I am directed to forward, for the information of the Governor in Council, a copy of the correspondence with Her Majesty's Secretary of State, noted in the margin, regarding the grant of an allowance of Rs. 200 a month for lecturing on Materia Medica in the Madras Medical College.

ENCLOSURES.

DESPATCH from His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Simla, the 26th October 1899, No. 374, Finance and Commerce Department (Salaries, Establishments, &c.—Medical).

We have the honour to refer, for your Lordship's favourable consideration, certain proposals made by the Government of Madras regarding the Professorship of Materia Medica in the Medical College, Madras.

2. The history of this chair is given in the letter from the Government of Madras of the 12th June last. After a number of changes the Local Government, in the year 1881, attached the appointment to that of Junior Medical Officer to the General Hospital without extra emoluments. This chair was occupied in August 1898 under these conditions by Captain Crawford, I.M.S., Second Surgeon, General Hospital, whose salary was Rs. 700 a month. It became necessary to transfer Captain Crawford to the charge of the 4th District (salary Rs. 650), but the Government of Madras desired that he should continue to lecture in Materia Medica in order that the series of lectures he was delivering should not be disturbed. The Professorship of Medical Jurisprudence is ordinarily attached, with a fee of Rs. 1,200 a year, to the post of Surgeon of the 4th District; but as Captain Crawford retained the Professorship of Materia Medica, the duty of lecturing in Medical Jurisprudence was entrusted, without extra emoluments, to Captain Gabbett, I.M.S., who succeeded Captain Crawford as Second Surgeon at the General Hospital. The Government of Madras ask to be permitted to grant the staff salary of Rs. 200 a month, which is ordinarily admissible for a minor Professorship, and which was formerly attached to the Professorship of Materia Medica, to Captain Crawford for lecturing in Materia Medica in addition to performing the duties of Surgeon of the 4th District. The arrangement will involve an extra expenditure of Rs. 100 a month. The Governor in Council also asks that the allowance of Rs. 200 a month may be granted to any officer whom it may be found convenient to appoint to the chair outside the officers holding the consolidated appointments mentioned in the Warrant of 1867.

3. We agree with the Government of Madras that Captain Crawford should be granted the extra remuneration of Rs. 200 a month for lecturing in Materia Medica in addition to performing the duties of Surgeon of the 4th District. We also agree that it will be convenient to grant to the Local Government the general authority for which they ask. We therefore commend both proposals for your Lordship's sanction.

DESPATCH from the Right Hon'ble Lord GEORGE HAMILTON, Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, to His Excellency the Right Honourable the Governor-General of India in Council, dated India Office, London, the 18th January 1900, No. 5, Public.

Having considered in Council the Financial letter of your Excellency's Government, No. 374, of the 26th October 1899, I sanction the allowance authorised under the General Order of your Government, dated the 4th April 1867, for the Professorship of Medical Jurisprudence being granted to any officer performing the duty of Professor of Materia Medica (if not holding one of the consolidated appointments mentioned in the Order), so long as the officer performing the duties of the former Professorship draws no part of such allowance.

2. I sanction also retrospective effect being given to this arrangement in the case of Major Crawford.
