GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., No. 130, Educational, dated 4th March 1899.

READ—also the following paper:—

From the Hon'ble Mr. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Director of Public Instruction, to the Secretary to Government, Educational Department, dated Madras, 3rd March 1900, No. 2180.

I have the honour to submit copy of a letter from M.R.Ry. N. Subrahmanyam Avargal, Barrister-at-Law, Madras, dated 8th February 1900, offering a sum of Rupees 6,000 for the purpose of founding a second scholarship in memory of his late wife, and to recommend that a half-grant of Rs. 3,000 be sanctioned by Government under chapter X of the Grant-in-Aid Code. On his offering last year a similar sum in Government promissory notes of the $3\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. loan, Government was pleased on the recommendation of Dr. Duncan to sanction a half-grant in G.O., No. 130, Educational, dated 4th March 1899.

2. The provision for furniture and other special grants sanctioned in the budget estimate for the current year, as well as the supplemental allotment sanctioned in G.O., No. 710, Educational, dated 24th October 1899, have been fully appropriated. The grant, if sanctioned, will be paid to the Syndicate of the Madras University as trustee, next year, from the provision for furniture and other special grants in the budget estimate for the ensuing year.

ENCLOSURE.

From M.R.Ry. N. SUBRAHMANYAM Avargal, B.A., B.L., Barrister-at-Law, to the Director of Public Instruction, dated the Luz, Madras, 8th February 1900.

I have the honour to request that you will be good enough to obtain from Government sanction for a grant of Rs. 3,000 in aid of a second scholarship which I propose to found in memory of my late wife to be known as "The Anne Isabella Subrahmanyam Scholarship."

2. In my letter to your predecessor, dated — January 1899, and embodied in G.O., No. 130, Educational, dated 4th March 1899, while applying for a similar grant of Rs. 3,000 in aid of a first scholarship, I set out fully the objects and conditions of the scholarship which I then proposed to found. The Government was then pleased to sanction a half-grant of Rs. 3,000 in aid of the endowment. Subsequently, a proper trust-deed after being approved by Government was duly executed, and Government promissory notes of the nominal value of Rs. 6,000 were handed over by me to the Registrar of the University of Madras, to whom the Accountant-General paid the sum of Rs. 3,000 sanctioned by Government. The trust-deed is printed in full in the Madras University Calendar for 1899-1900, Volume I, page 218.

3. In my previous letter above referred to, I stated that it was my intention to found one such scholarship every year until the whole number amounted to five, so as to enable the University to throw open one scholarship for competition annually. In furtherance of this intention I propose to give a sum of Rs. 6,000, and if the Government would be pleased to give a grant-in-aid of Rs. 3,000, the two sums, amounting to Rs. 9,000, could be handed over to the University as an endowment for a second scholarship to be awarded subject to the same terms and conditions as the first.

4. No fresh deed of trust would be necessary, as provision has already been made in the deed already executed for payment to the University of further sums of money for founding additional scholarships.

5. The only condition that I would wish to make quite clear is that this scholarship is not to be awarded in the same year as the first scholarship.

ORDER—No. 113, Educational, dated 9th March 1900.

A half-grant of Rs. 3,000 in aid of the endowment is sanctioned.
