CHIEF OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

With reference to G.O. No. 312, Educational, dated 2nd June 1897 directing that the Primary School Examination qualification need not be required of candidates for the offices of Police Head Constables and constables till 1st January 1900, I have the honour to request that the concession granted therein may be extended for a further period of 3 years.

2. Considerable difficulty is still experienced in obtaining passed candidates for these appointments. Out of 1478 candidates enlisted during 1899 only 168 or 11.3 per cent were passed men though preference was given to passed candidates. Of these 168 men, 30 were enlisted for office work.

3. District Superintendents say that passed men are not available and I am afraid that for some time to come it will be so, and we shall have to be content with enforcing the elementary qualification of ability to read and write as far as possible.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Extension of the period of exemption

Police Head Constables & Constables.

FOR ORDERS.

B.

In its order no 312 Edl dt 2nd June 1897 Govt directed that the Primary examination qualification need not be required of candidates for the offices of Head Constables and Constables till the 1st of January 1900.
The Inspector General of Police now reports that considerable difficulty is still experienced in obtaining passed candidates for these appointments and that out of 1478 candidates enlisted during 1899 only 168 were passed men although preference was given to passed candidates. He requests therefore that the time allowed in the above G.O. may be extended for a further period of three years.

2. In the case of persons in the P.W.D
Govt decided in its order no 57 Edl dt 3rd February 1900 that no general relaxation or exemption should be given but that of

Limitation 3

Cases should be reported for special sanction.
It does not appear that the Police department can be differently treated.

orders are solicited.

interference to be made with the order.

In the case of the P.W.D. persons the difficulty arose chiefly in a few districts; in the present case it seems to be universal. Moreover difficulty is recruiting the Police forcing to take much more serious affairs than have hitherto been which I would suggest that the thin end of the wedge might be inserted by requiring applications for exemption in the case of Head Constables while extending the concession to the district of constables. I think it might be done by the new order of 3-3-00.

Submitted that the Concession should be extended

The Circs are quite different.

Many officers want more a finger to carry out the orders of Govt as to persons being furnished by Govt;
whereas the I. G. is most keen to get literate Constables & only entreats the illiterate much against his will.
