SALEM COLLECTOR'S OFFICE,
24th February 1899

NO. 284

FROM

ROBERT B CLEGG Esq.,

AG. COLLECTOR AND DISTRICT MAGISTRATE,
Salem,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,
Local and Municipal DEPARTMENT,
Madras.

SIR,

The clerk on Rs. 15 under the Special Plague Officer, Hosur, is an F.A., without the handwriting test. He was appointed temporarily for 3 months and the period expired on the 16th November 1899. The Special Plague Officer, Hosur, states that he tried to secure a qualified man but has not been successful and requests that he may be allowed to retain the man until a passed candidate is available. Articles 1 & 2 of public service notification apply to all temporary appointments and those created on account of plague and classified under 24 Medical do not come under the exceptions referred to in article 3 of the public service notification. I have the honour to recommend, therefore, the application of the Special Plague Officer for sanction.

2. Whilst on this subject I beg to state that some of the clerks employed at the Jalarpet Inspection Station are also unpassed and unqualified men do not offer themselves even for clerical appointments, connected with plague. I had to compel two of my office clerks to go to Hosur as plague clerks in the Taluk Office as men could not be got locally. The clerk under the Additional Medical Officer, Tiruppattur, has applied for leave and the District Medical and Sanitary Officer has not been able to find a substitute. In view of the difficulty of getting qualified men and to avoid frequent applications to Government for exemption, I would suggest that the rules may be relaxed and temporary clerical and menial appointments created on account of plague be exempted from the operation of articles 1 & 2 of the public service notification whether the expenditure therefor forms a direct or an indirect plague charge. Every endeavour, will, however, be made to comply with the rules as far as possible.

I have the honour to be;

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Ramchandran

For Ag. Collector.
