a stipend of Rs 272-11-0, he died in 1888, his family was pensioned in which petitioner's father's share was only the surviving son, was Rs 20, but in 1896 the petitioner's father Mirza Secunder Baksh on some of charge unfortunately lost both his honor and pension, but the benevolent-Government out of which sanctioned Rs 4 till the age of 21st to the petitioner's name.

out of this small & conditional pension, he has to support

Further that the most humbly beg to inform your Excellency that the petitioner is advised by the native Doctor to discontinue his studies, so he can neither prosecute his studies nor search any employment as the Examination rules stand in the way of the petitioner.

Lastly that the petitioner with regard to the above mentioned misfortunes extremely hopes that your Excellency would graciously be pleased to exempt him from the Examination rules in order that he may be able to support himself, mother & sister, for which the petitioner as in duty bound shall ever pray for your Excellency's long life & prosperity.

I beg to remain

Most humbly, Sheweth

Your Excellency's most Obedient Servant
