Ask whether the exemption applied for may be granted and if so whether it may be a general exemption or a limited one. If the latter should it be to enable the Clerk to hold a 60 rupees appointment or only that of the Record Keeper?

Sir / I have the honor to request that the Sir's Government will be pleased to exempt A.
Venkoba Rao, second clerk of my office on Rs 50 from passing the Precis writing Test in the following circumstances 2. Venkoba Rao has put in a total service of 20 years - 10 years in Lalag offices and a similar period in my office. He is in charge of jamahudy statistics and other important branches of work and has given me complete satisfaction. Indeed he is the most useful clerk in the whole of my office establishment. I find from the records that when he applied for a first class Revenue Inspector's place in July 1894, Mr. Mulla endorsed on his petition - "How would the Hoogoor do without you specially, at Jamma-bundy?" He has passed the General test, Revenue Lower and Translation Lower. He went up for the Precis writing twice but unfortunately failed.

I propose to appoint him to the post of the ~~Daftardar~~ Record Keeper of my office on Rs. 60 which has now fallen permanently vacant and for which higher Educational qualifications are not quite indispensable, while his long service and intimate knowledge of the important branches of work in my office will be very useful.

Moreover, his excellent conduct and zealous devotion to duty, render him eminently eligible for the concession - a favour which will be a suitable recognition, in the closing years of his service, of his good work.

Yours

If deemed fit, the ~~Sir~~^H Government may be pleased to limit the exemption to posts carrying a salary of Rs. 60 or even more specifically to the post of Record Keeper.

I have &c

Draft order of the L. & M. Dept. proposing to exempt A. Venkoba Rao, 2nd Clerk of the Collector's office, Kurnool, from passing the precis-writing test so as to enable him to hold the ^{post}~~place~~ of ~~the~~ record-keeper, (sent to Revenue for counter-initials).

Secy.

There is, I submit, really no reason for granting the concession. If the clerk is so very good, why cannot he pass? It will be an awkward precedent also. The very strength of Mr. Muhammad Raza Khan's recommendation makes one doubt its value.

Mr. I agree that it is an awkward precedent, but the man has now 20 years service: & from the testimony of Mr. Raja Khan & Mr.
Mullaly he appears to have exceptional knowledge.
The exemption may be restricted specifically to the Record Keeper's post

The post of Mr. Venkoba to P. Venkoba Rao, a Precursor of Mr.
& a Collector's Clerk
