OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF

PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras, 12 March 1900.

CURRENT NO. 347

No. 2515

From

THE HON'BLE MR. G. H. STUART, M.A., Barrister-at-Law,

DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

~~Educational~~ DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

Mr. J. G. Smith, senior Professor of the Law College having been appointed to act as Chief Judge of the Court of Small causes, I have the honour to request the sanction of Government for his doing the duties of Law Professor in addition to his duties as Chief Judge until the close of the current term. The Principal recommends that as Mr. Smith is now in the middle of a course of lectures and as the remaining portion of the term is short, he may be permitted to continue in the College. A similar permission was given once before in G.O. No 585, Educational, dated 12th August 1893.

about the end of April.

I

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Stuart

Director of Public Instruction.

NOTE FOR THE CHIEF SECRETARY

Mr. Smith's Lectureship
in the Law College

Please see the proposed passage in the 'Hinder' of back up, in which it is argued that Mr. Smith cannot legally continue to hold his appointment at the Law College while he acts as Chief Judge of the Small Cause Court. The
'Hinder's' view appears to be correct. Lecturing at the Law College, for remuneration, is clearly a 'profession'.

Mr.
2-4-00

A man may be a teacher without being engaged in the profession of teaching. Mr. Smith's profession is Law. But though I think it is open to question whether Mr. Smith's continued employment violates the letter of the law
I am sure it violates its spirit and I think Mr.
Smith that he is neglecting his teaching duties.

2/4/00. D. A. A.

For the As.

The Judicial department has not countersigned the draft at flag C. It considers that Mr. Smith should be relieved of his duties in the Law College. May the D.P. be informed accordingly?

For orders as to whether the view of Judicial should be accepted, or the precedent at I. followed.

R.G. 3-4-00

It appears that the term ends this month, &
that the recommendation is made in the interests of the Students, because a new lecturer can hardly take up the broken
course of lectures.

On this ground (that on Mr. Smith's account)
I think he may be safely permitted to continue to lecture till the end of the term.

On the former occasion referred to in the
Jud. Dept. note below
it was stated that Mr. Smith's duties in the Law College only occupied
him in the early morning,
out of court hours. It is not known whether the circumstances are the same now. Before counterinitialed the draft order it seems desirable to ask Edl point.

Mr. Smith delivers one lecture in the morning ~~10.15 to 11~~ 9.45 to 10.45; and two lectures in the evening 5.15 to 6.15. The Court is close to the Law College and the quarter of an hour before 11 & after 5 gives ample time to go from one building to the other.
