Public Service Notification.

Referring, for favour of remarks, to the Honourable the Judges of the High Court, the Board of Revenue, and other heads of departments and the departments of the Secretariat, letter from the Deputy Adjutant-General suggesting that a list may be prepared and appended to the — of all posts to which military pensioners might be appointed.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O., No. 20, Educational, dated 19th January 1900.

ABSTRACT.—Stating that military pensioners possessing certificates as army schoolmasters will be given the concession granted to military pensioners holding first and second class regimental certificates of education; and requesting the Commissioner for Government Examinations to submit a draft of the necessary alteration to be made in the Public Service Notification.

READ—also the following paper:—

From Brigadier-General GEORGE HENRY, Deputy Adjutant-General, Madras Command, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Educational Department, dated Ootacamund, 17th April 1900, No. N.T. 5061.

With reference to Proceedings of Madras Government, No. 20, dated 19th January 1900, I have the honour, by desire of the Lieutenant-General Commanding, to forward the accompanying letter, D. No. 1047, dated 15th March 1900, from the District Judge, Kistna, suggesting that post of amin of a civil court should be included in the list of appointments open to military pensioners mentioned in article 4 of the Public Service Notification, and to state that, as the post of a court amin is considered not beyond the capabilities of pensioners whom Government has already been pleased to exempt from the operation of the Examination Rules in regard to the posts mentioned in the notification, these posts being superior to that of a court amin, it should be included in the list.

2. To avoid frequent communications of the nature under review and consequent references to Government, and as it is desirable that the list of appointments for which military pensioners are or will be found fit, should be as exhaustive as possible, I am to suggest that Government may be moved to communicate with the heads of departments in view to ascertaining what particular posts they should deem fit to add to the present list, and on receipt of their replies, to make one consolidated list of all appointments and append the same to the Public Service Notification which should be amended accordingly.

ENCLOSURE.

From W. C. HOLMES, Esq., District Judge, Kistna, to the Superintendent of Pensioners, Madras, dated 15th March 1900, D. No. 1047.

I have the honour to state that a native pensioned military jemadar, possessing a second-class regimental certificate of education, recently applied to me for an amin's post in any of the civil courts in this district. Clause 2 of article 4 of the Public Service Notification, dated 4th May 1894, lays down that an officer of the applicant's rank is not required to qualify himself under the preceding articles before being appointed to any of the posts mentioned therein. But the post of an amin does not find place there, though most of the appointments therein enumerated carry a much higher salary than that of an amin, and there does not appear to be any reason why such military pensioners should not be exempted from passing the Civil Examination before being appointed as amins.

2. I have on previous occasions received similar applications, and I would have appointed military pensioners of the rank of subadar, jemadar and havildar as amins, were it not for the rule referred to above.

3. I request that you will be so good to inform me if the exclusion of amin's posts from the list was intentional, and whether you would think it advisable to take steps to have the rule amended, and if so, whether you would like me to ask the High Court to move Government to have the necessary amendment made.

ORDER—No. 185, Educational, dated 27th April 1900.

The letter from the Deputy Adjutant-General, with its enclosure, will be referred to the Honourable the Judges of the High Court, the Board of Revenue, and other heads of departments and the departments of the Secretariat for favour of remarks.
