The Head Assistant Collector

Most Honoured Sir,

I beg most humbly to lay before your honors the following few lines and pray your honors will be pleased to get me exempted from the Hard writing and Dictation Test.

On my passing the Metric Examination, I was appointed by the Head Assistant Collector as a Gunastak of this office which I joined on 2-39 and it is more than 4 years since I have joined. There was no break of service during these four years.
But I have acted for three months on Rs 2000 special clerk.

am not able to get Rs 15 permanent. This is owing to my not having passed the Handwriting Test to which I appeared 5 times.

Every time, I failed, I tried to get rid of my post, but I was advised by superiors that I must stick up to this.

Further, I beg humbly to state that I am doing the Record Keeper's work in this office (a post of Rs 25, as per Mr. Garstin's scheme), and hence I had not the best opportunities of practising my handwriting.

During my four years work I had not a single occasion to be fined during my duty to the satisfaction of my superiors.

Further, Matriculates are allowed to appear for the special Test Examination, though examination. and thus I have passed the Translation Lower Telugu (a qualification for the Record Keeper's post). But I cannot get Rs 15 permanent because for want of handwriting Test.

I beg to submit herewith some papers for your honour's perusal.

Every time I was not successful in the Handwriting Examination.

I was exempted. 1st Government exempted me for one year and three times by the Board. (B.P. Nos. $\frac{1346}{17.5.38}$, $\frac{1920}{27.5.37}$, $\frac{720}{18.3.38}$, $\frac{876}{30.3.38}$). and there fore I beg, your honour, most humbly to be pleased to exempt me once for all from the Handwriting and Dictation Test for which act of kindness, I shall ever pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain

SIR,

I have the honor to Submit herewith for the favorable Consideration of Government an application from L. Susamari, an acting clerk in the Talisiloor Office, Kandgal requesting that he may be exempted from passing the Hand writing and Dictation Test. His application is supported by the Talisiloor and Head Assistant Collector. The Talisiloor speaks very favorably of the applicant's work. He has passed the Matriculation Examination and has been working in the Kandgal Taluk office for the last 4 years. He appeared for the Hand writing and Dictation Test 5 times, but has not passed it. He writes a tolerably good hand as shown by his application. He has gained 4 years experience in the

Examinations and has become despondent. He is a trust worthy and obedient clerk. He has done good work in the record

I stood in his way of accepting appointments on

I think that he deserves
