

G.O., No. 101 P.

DATED 30. 4. 00.

[Despatch Abstract.]

Ph of the Law College Council

Informing the D.P.I. that it would not detract from the Principal's authority to have a High Court judge as President of the Law College Council

G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.	G.O.	No.	Department.	Date.

I do not at all agree with Mr. Stuart's conclusions. When I was at Trinity Coll. London, the President of the Congr. was a judge, Lord Brougham. The Principal of the Coll. must ~~also~~ be a member of the Council. It is not however proposed to make an immediate change in the constitution of the Council. That should come about when Mr. Nelson's present term expires & the position of the Law Coll. is settled.

At 20.3.00.

My dear Tremenhare.

In reply to your D.O. of the 13th Feb I do not see any useful object that can be served by making a High Court judge president of the Law College Council instead of the Principal. The Principal is responsible for the proper working of the College & should

If the Principal is not be President I would ther see him off the Council altogether.

I do not at all agree with Mr. Stewart's conclusions from these or similar cases.
 I am, however, not so sure that we are a fair sample. The sampling is not fair. I must say a member of the Council.
 It is not known whether we make our own choice of the Council. That is done about the time when I present to you or in position of the Council.
 It is settled.

My dear Sir
A suggestion has been made that the constitution of the College Council be slightly changed it is proposed to that in future the Senior High Court
who is a member, be president, the Principal of the College remaining upon the Council as an ordinary member.

Will you kindly consider this proposal and ~~report~~ let me have your views upon it for submission to O

Yours sincerely

My dear Stuart

With reference to your letter of the 2nd March 1900 regarding the Law Council, I am directed to inform you that the Govt. does not agree with your conclusions that it would detract from Principal's authority to have a High Court Judge as President of the Council and the Principal if not appointed President should not be a member of the Council. I is not however intended to make any immediate change in the Constitution of the Council. That ^{should} be brought about when Mr. Nelson's present term expires and the position of the College is settled

Yours faithfully
