To

His Excellency the Governor
in Council

Fort St George,

Thru: The Inspector General of Registration Madras and the District Registrar of Vellore.

The humble Memorial of Gadarnsetti Subbiah, permanent Clerk of the Sub-Registrar's Office at Kavali, Vellore District and acting 3rd Clerk of the District Registrar's Office, Vellore most respectfully sheweth that:

1. The Memorialist entered Government Service on the 6th July 1882 as Head master of the Government Girls' School, Angole on a salary of Rs 15 per mensem. In 1883 he passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st Class and in subsequent years the Special test Examinations of Criminal Law, Revenue Lower with Account Code and Translation Lower. Thus under the examination rules then in force he was not only a passed candidate but he had also qualified himself for a better post. Until October 1888, the memorialist continued as Head master of the Girls' School when he had reasons to fear that he might be required to vacate his place in favor of a mistress by a rule in the then Educational Standing orders. He therefore got himself transferred to the Registration Department as a Clerk on Rs 14.

2. Ever since, the memorialist worked very hard in the heavy offices of Kandukur and Angole. He was promoted to Rs 15 on the 9th May 1896 as Clerk, Kanigiri Sub Registrar's Office and was transferred to Bellare Registrar's Office as 6th Clerk on Rs 15 and then to Kavali as Clerk on the same pay. But long after he was given promotion to Rs 15, he was declared not eligible for promotion beyond Rs 15 in Proceedings G. O. No 7355 dated 23rd November 1897. Communicating G. O. No 619 dated 3rd November 1897. He begs to submit that he was made subject to these orders as his case was not fully brought to the kind notice of the Inspector General when passing these orders. In the revised scheme of Clerks sanctioned in G. O. No 558 dated 7th March 1894, all the unpassed candidates who entered the Registration Department prior to 1st January 1888 were exempted from the examination rules and the benign Government will observe

Now the memorialist who passed the requisite examination including special tests qualifying for Tahsildar's post under the rules previously in force and who entered public service so far back as 6th July 1882 was kept in a worse position than the Clerks who passed no examination and who entered public service after him.

3. In fact the memorialist was not, in 1894, considered an unpassed candidate requiring exemption and in this belief, the memorialist was given a 15 Rs post in 1896 by the then District Registrar and no exception was taken to it; but in 1897 a separate construction was put on the Public Service Notification of 1894 that it barred the promotion of persons who passed the Middle School Examination in the 1st Class and who were not then in appointments of Rs 15 and upwards. Had this construction been put in earlier, the memorialist's name would have been included in the general list of unpassed candidates and exemption from examination rules obtained. For the sin of having got himself transferred from the Educational Department where the memorialist held a post of Rs 15 in 1888 to the Registration Department, he had to pine away in the same pay for 8 years. This, in itself, is most pitiable. Even if he

than a promotion to a lower post, a promotion of 1st class between 1888 and 1894 he would not have been affected by the Public Service Notification as construed in 1897.

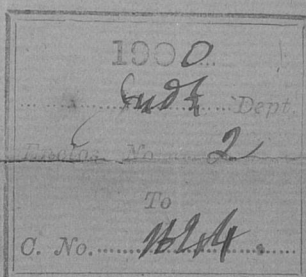

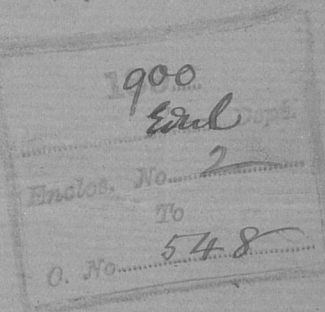

4. The memorialist has put in about 18 years' pensionable service having entered public service in 1882 on a salary of Rs 15 per mensem from which starting point he has had no move and he has been made a prey to the Public Service Notification of 1894 though under the rules then in force he passed the special tests qualifying for a Tahsildar's post.

5. In these circumstances, the memorialist most humbly and respectfully prays that His Excellency the Governor in Council will be pleased to kindly consider the memorialist's poor case and declare that the Public Service Notification of 1894 did not affect the memorialist or exempt him from the Examination rules.

The memorialist begs to remain Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant.

G. Subbiah

Ag. 3rd Clerk, Registrar's Office, Vellore and permanent Clerk of Kavali S.R.O.

No. 735

Submitted to the Inspector-General of Registration, Madras for favor of submission to Government with very favorable recommendation.

2. The memorialist entered the public service so far back as 1882 on a pay of Rs 15 and it is a pity that he, who had passed the Middle School examination in the first class with Special Tests (a qualified test by the rules then in force for posts carrying Rs 15 & upwards) was latterly made subject to the public service notification of 1894 and debarred from promotion above Rs 15. When he was transferred to the department in October 1888 on less pay he had great hopes of rising in the clerical line. When in March 1894 the unpassed registration clerks who had entered the

the Service before 1st January 1888
were exempted from Examination rules the name of the memo-rialist was not included in the list of such exempted clerks as he was, as per rules then in force - a passed person and even the public Service Notification that came into force on the 1st July 1894 was not considered a bar to his promotion as he was actually promoted to Rs 15 later in May 1896. But unfortunately for him the issue of Progs
G. No 7355 dated 23rd Nov
1897 Communicating
G. O. No 619 dated 3rd Nov 1897
debarred his further promotion. Thus he, a passed Candidate under the old rules, is now in a worse
position than the unpassed men exempted by Government. On receipt of such

G. O.

D

G. O. the then Registrar does not appear to have brought the case of this worthy young man - (memorialist) to the notice of the Inspector General for Special exemption.

3. The clerk is an intelligent hard working, well-behaved & Capable young man and bears good testimonials from all the officers under whom he has served. Since his transfer to this office as acting 3rd Clerk
he has given me complete satisfaction.

4. The clerk's long Service of 18 years Coupled with the fact of his having passed a qualifying examination under the rules in force when he entered the public Service may be kindly taken into the benign consideration of Government and he be graciously exempted from examination rules for promotion in the clerical grade.

Submitted to Government.

2. The memorialist entered the Registration Department as a clerk on Rs.14 on the 16th. October 1888 and was promoted to Rs.15 on the 11th. May 1896 by the then Inspector-General. It was subsequently declared that the promotions of men who had passed only the Middle School Examination to a Rs.15 post after the 1st. July 1894 was a mistake, but as a special case the memorialist(along with several others) was allowed to continue in the Rs.15 post under G.O.,No.619, Educational, dated 3rd. November 1897.

3. The memorialist urges, however, that before entering the Registration Department in 1888 he was drawing Rs.15 in the Government Girls' School, and that he was permitted to appear ^{for} and has passed successfully, the tests prescribed for a Tahsildar.

Exemption from the Exam. rules.

FOR ORDERS.

The petitioner has passed the Middle School Examination in the First class and the special tests prescribed for the post of Tahsildar. From the 6th July 1882 to the 15th October 1888 he was Head Master of the Govt. Girls' School, Ongole, on Rs 15. On the 16th Oct. 1888, he entered the Registration Department as a clerk on Rs 14 but failed to get any promotion to Rs 15 before 1st July 1894 the date on which the existing Public Service Notification came into force. He was therefore under the rules as then interpreted in this Office ineligible for promotion to Rs 15 and upwards. When these facts were brought to the notice of the Inspector General

Exemption from the Exam. rules.

FOR ORDERS.

A.M.

The petitioner has passed the Middle School Examination in the First class and the special tests prescribed for the post of Tahsildar. From the 6th July 1882 to the 15th October 1888 he was Head Master of the Govt. Girls' School, Ongole, on Rs 15. On the 16th Oct. 1888, he entered the Registration Department as a clerk on Rs 14 but failed to get any promotion to Rs 15 before 1st July 1894 the date on which the existing Public Service Notification came into force. He was therefore under the rules as then interpreted in this Office ineligible for promotion to Rs 15 and upwards. When these facts were brought to the notice of the Inspector General

note.
Please see notice orders in G.O. no 606 Rd d/12-9-99. N.

General of Registration promoted him and thirty others to Rs 15 in 1896, they were all permitted as a special case to continue in the posts to which they were promoted - Vide G.O. N° 619 Edl. dt 3rd Nov. 1897. C

2. The petitioner now argues that as before entering the Registration Department he was in receipt of Rs 15 in the Govt. Girls School, Ongole; he is not subject to the rule debar-^{ring} promotion ~~to~~ middle school men who did not get Rs 15 before the 1st July 1894. He requests therefore that he may be declared to be unaffected by the Public Service Notification of 1894 or that he may be exempted from the Examination rules.

3. From the notes and orders in G.O. N° 606 Edl. dt 12th September 1899 it will be seen that note 1) to the Preamble to the Public Service Notification has all along been ~~not~~ correctly interpreted in this Office. But for this the petitioner and a host of others

others like him would have been held to be eligible for promotion. It has however now been decided that this interpretation should be adhered to; but in consideration of the circumstance and of the fact that he has passed all the special tests prescribed for the post of Tahsildar, the petition, it is submitted, may now be exempted from the Examination rules.

Secy.

I submit he may be exempted as a special case.

as a matter of fact it could be made out that no exemption is needed; for the man held a permanent appt. on Rs 15 before 1st July '94, though not on that date. But it may be better to exempt.

R.A.

As ~~found~~ ²⁻⁵⁻⁰⁰ by the Regd., may be exempted from Exam. Rules for promotion in the Clerical grade.
