Read also the following letter from W. Hughes Esq, Chief Engineer for Irrigation, T.R. Scheme, No. 659.T., dated 26th March 1900:—

In reply to the Board's Reference No. 492 dated 3rd March 1900 I have the honour to inform you that in the Public Works Department maistries are as a rule, charged to "works" and that there is therefore no difficulty about educational qualifications save in special cases where men have been employed in workshops on monthly pay and exemptions have been obtained.

2. As the appointments of the Minor Irrigation Maistries are permanent and pensionable, compliance with the rules of the Educational Department seems unavoidable. It seems to me advisable to limit the obligatory tests required of them as far as possible and I am of opinion that in making new appointments, it would be sufficient if preference is given to candidates who possess a certificate of having passed through the artisan class of the College of Engineering or to Agricultural Students who have --- passed in Agricultural Engineering, Surveying and Levelling.

Resolution:-

The papers read above will be submitted for the orders of Government.

2. In his letter read above, the Collector of Trichinopoly applies for sanction for the exemption from the examination rules for a period of five and a half months, of one Subbu Singh who was appointed to act as a Minor Irrigation Maistry on Rs. 20 in the new scheme of Establishment recently sanctioned for the supervision of Minor Irrigation works.

3. The Chief Engineer for Irrigation who was consulted as to the qualifications required for the post of a Minor Irrigation Maistry, states in his letter read above, that, in making new --- appointments it would be sufficient if preference is given to candidates who possess a certificate of having passed through the --- artisan class of the College of Engineering or to Agricultural Students who have passed in Agricultural Engineering, Surveying and Levelling. The Board requests that the Chief Engineer's --- suggestion may be accepted and embodied in the Public Service Notification.
