C. No. 634.

SUBJECT.

Exemption from the Examination
rules.

FOR ORDERS.

F.

The Petitioner's case is set forth in the note at pag 7. reproduced
below for the sake of convenience:—
P. Kannan, the petitioner, is a first class Middle School man and as such was eligible for appointment
to a post carrying a pay of Rs 15
and upwards in the superior service until the 1st July 1894 when the revised Public Service Notification requiring a pass in the Upper Secondary or Matriculation Examination came into force. He entered the P. W. Deptt. in 1891 as a temporary clerk and continued to be so until August 1894 when he was given a permanent appointment on a pay of Rs 15 to Rs 20. But as under the revised Public Service
Notification

Notification he was ineligible to hold the post conferred on him he was exempted from the rule in G.O. N° 73 dt 29th January 1895. (Hag. C.). The exemption given him however is not a general one but restricts him to a clerk's post in the Public Works Dept. on Rs 15 to Rs 20. He was thus on two occasions temporarily exempted to enable him to hold a post on Rs 20 to Rs 30. Vide G.O. No 572 dt 6th September 1897 & N° R. 459 dt 29th November 1897. But when the same concession was asked for a third time it was refused. Vide G.O. No 715 dt 16th November 1898. Hag. R.

2. Subsequently the petitioner asked for a reconsideration of the last mentioned order but this was refused in G.O. N° 107 Edl. dt 22nd February 1899.

3. He ^{again} asks for a ~~for~~ reconsideration the only fresh ground for it being that he has passed the Translation test Lower and the Account test, Lower. His case is not exactly parallel to that of the man exempted in G.O. N° 203 Edl dt 14th May 1900.

That man had passed the Middle School Examination in the first class and the Criminal Law, Revenue Lower with Account Code and Translation Lower, whereas Hannan has passed only the Middle School Examination, first class, Translation Lower and Account test Lower. The former besides held a permanent post on Rs 15 before 1st July 1894 though not on that date, while Hannan held only a temporary appointment on that date. Hannan cannot therefore claim the benefit of the note to the Preamble to the Public Service Notification which the other man holds. orders are solicited as to whether any exemption should now be granted.

The previous order should be upheld Not recommended.
