CHIEF SECRETARY
22 MAY 1900
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

The humble petition of Mahabudin Husain most respectfully sheweth.

1. That the petitioner is connected by blood with the family of the renowned Wallajah of the Carnatic fame.
2. That he is the grandson of Husaina Begum Sahab, who is a Carnatic pensioner, but whose stipend Rs 20 was commuted long ago.
3. That the petitioner's grand father Mohamed Husain Sahab, who was also a Carnatic pensioner drawing Rs 300 a month, was the direct grandson of Nawab Wallajah. That Your Lordship may refer about the family to the Carnatic Agent Office at Madras.
4. That the time that her stipend is commuted, the petitioner's grand mother Husaina Begum Sahab, is under his maintenance and he as her grandson ought to provide her with her maintenance.
5. That the petitioner has to maintain a large family of seven souls including his brothers and sisters.
6. That he has with great difficulty strived and studied up to the Matriculation standard.

but owing to the stress of circumstances — beyond his control, the petitioner has been compelled to give up his studies in order to procure himself with a Government employment to enable himself to support his destitute family.

7. That with such an idea the petitioner has applied to the secretary to the Salt and Abkari Revenue for the post of sub-Inspector. But that he was disappointed when he received a reply from Board Office Sub: No: 1932 dated 7th May 1900, by which he was informed that he is not qualified for Government employment.

8. That the petitioner's age is 23 years and that by his size and physical fitness, he is suitable person for the Department of Salt and Abkari Revenue.

9. That his present disqualification for his not having passed any of the higher examinations, precludes him from entering Government Service.

10. That he has come to understand that there is a rule by which a special privilege is given to the sons of the Carnatic family by virtue of which they are exempted — from the Government Upper Secondary Examination and thus made eligible for Government Service.

CHIEF SECRETARY
23 MAY 1900
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

11. That the petitioner being somewhat advanced in age and the burden of maintaining this large family having devolved upon his shoulders, he most humbly prays that Your Lordship will be pleased to allow him the enjoyment of this privilege and thus save him as well as his family from a certain ruin and starvation that he is otherwise impeding upon them.

12. That for this most gracious act, the petitioner will feel himself ever gratefully bound to Your Lordship

The humble petitioner
