H.A. Stuart, Esq., I.C.S.,

Acting INSPECTOR-GENERAL OF POLICE,

Madras.

The Chief Secretary to Government,
Ootacamund.

Enclosures.

SIR,

With reference to G.O.No.245, Judicial, dated 14th February 1900, I have the honour to state that most of the present Head Quarter and Audit Inspectors are not fully qualified for the posts of Manager and accountant respectively, as they have not passed the higher account test, which has recently been added to the tests required for such appointments - vide G.O.No.68, Educational, dated 13th February 1900.

2. I herein enclose two lists. List A contains the names of the Head Quarter and Audit Inspectors who are fairly young men. I request that they may be temporarily exempted from passing the account test, higher grade, until the results of the examination to be held in October 1901 are announced.

List - B shows the names of the remaining officers, who, on account of their age and experience of office work, may, I consider, be exempted from passing the test. I request that the Government will be pleased to grant them this exemption.

3. The case of V. Raghaviah, Head Quarter Inspector of Police, Anantapur, requires special mention. He has passed the Middle School examination in the first class, the Criminal test

Encl. 2
to Mr. 765

grade, the Police departmental test and the translation lower test. He has been solely employed on clerical duties during the nine years of his service. He is unfit for the work of a divisional Inspector, but is a fairly capable office man for employment in a telugu district. I request that he may be exempted from passing the Upper Secondary examination and temporarily from the precis-writing test until the results of the examination to be held in October 1901 are known. As regards the account test, higher grade, his name is shewn in List -A.

4. There are a few more men who are not qualified but they are 1st class Inspectors and they must remain in the Inspectors' list until they retire, as their pay exceeds that of the highest class ^{of} Managers. Their names are, therefore, not included in either of the lists, as the Account Test is not prescribed for the post of inspector.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedt. servant,

H. F. F. F.

ORDER. No. 250 of 19.6.00

The recommendations of the Inspector General contained in para. 2 of his letter read above are accepted. With reference to para. 3, V. Raghaviah will be exempted from the precis-writing test until the results of the examination to be held in October 1901 are announced, but under note (1) to the preamble to the Public service notification, it is not necessary that he should be exempted from the upper secondary examination.
