2. With reference to your letter No.2563-25-6, of 27th July 1899 and accompaniments, I would beg to acknowledge with gratitude the courtesy of Government in aiding to get some systematic collection made of representations of Gandhara sculptures, scattered about in various Indian Museums. And with reference to the enclosure No.1 of that letter and my reply I have the honour to enquire if the Superintendent of the Madras Central Museum has had the sculptures there photographed, and if so, whether I could be favoured by a set of prints in advance. I have noted his letter enclosed in 4374-25-15 of 14th December.

3. I would again refer to Major Cole's "Third Report," page 22 and Appendix T, page cl, where he stated that (in 1884) he and General Sir A. Cunningham had in hand a work on "Buddhist Sculptures of Gandhara," and when 83 plates were apparently under preparation for it. It would be desirable to know what information is available as to such of these plates as were actually prepared and what has become of them and the materials. Perhaps 50 or thereby can be identified in Major Cole's fasciculus on "Graeco-Bactrian Sculptures from Yusufzai" and in photographs of sculptures at Lahore, but the plans and drawings with some others ought to be in existence somewhere and would be of much value. With the drawings of the Sanchi gateways I referred to in a former letter they were probably in Major Cole's charge.
