Orders

As to whether the exemption applied for may be granted. From the collector's letter it seems that qualified candidates are available but that they are not likely to be as efficient, as to stand the climate as well, as the Collrs nominee. Exemption on this ground is not, in submitted, justifiable.

SUBJECT.

At present I am ignorant of the Secretary's views in cases like this. It very often happens that an unpassed man is better than the available passed men. This consideration does not justify exemption, but when the station happens to be a very important one, the unpassed man is tolerably "fit for the job". I have been in the office for several years, and where the duties are of no great importance, I think there may be some grounds for Submitting for the orders of - Govt. an application from the Collector of Godavari for the permanent exemption from the examination rules of Shalki Ismail, ag. delayat, in his office.

To

THE Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, Madras.

SIR,

Sheik Ismail, an attender in the Estate Branch on Rs 6, has been acting as deputy of the Collector and Government agent on Rs 7 for about 3 years and has been discharging his duties satisfactorily. He is well fitted for the post as he knows the Agency well and seems to be fairly fever-proof.

2. As Mr. Venkataswami, a dataryet on Rs 7, died recently from ague & fever, I wish to confirm Sheikh Ismail in the vacancy. Sheikh Ismail is fully qualified for the post in all respects except by examination rules which are of little Consequence so far as agency work is concerned.

3. I therefore request that the Board will be pleased to obtain the sanction of Government for exempting Sheikh Ismail from the Examination Rules. As an agency person he did and will do better than any of the Primary Test Candidates available.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,

Your most obedient Servant
A. E. Castle Stuart Stuart
