SUBJECT.

Grant towards the cost of books and periodicals required by the Teachers' Guild.

FOR ORDERS.

The Teachers' Guild, Madras, proposes to buy books and periodicals of the value of Rs 467.10.0 and applies for a half grant of Rs 233.50.0 under clause (i), article 2, Chap. IX of the grant in aid Code. The D. P. I. recommends the payment of the grant. Under clause (i), article 2, Chapter IX of the Code grants are payable towards the cost of books and non-Indian periodicals for school and public libraries and reading room.
From page 1135 of the Asylum press almanac for 1900, it appears that the guild has rooms in several parts of Madras. Its libraries are attached, but these libraries can hardly be regard

(p. 33)

regarded as public libraries:
nor are they school libraries.
The D.P.I may therefore be asked to O, how the payment of the grant applied for can be justified.

(Int) P.T.T

Is it not a "school reading room"

(Int) A.T.P

For the A.S

It is submitted that it is not a "school reading room". The Guild consists of members of the teaching profession, but has no connection with any particular school or college. It is a registered body under Act XXI of 1860 (India).
The books and periodicals are required for the use of the members of the Guild.

(Int) P.T.T

The point is whether the words in ch. IX, 2(i), are to be restricted to their primary meaning. ^{under the Code} aid may be given for school [libraries and reading rooms]
and public libraries and reading rooms.
Is not this ^{library} reading room one which

No. But it has with schools in general. H.P.

The library of the Teachers' Guild is not one for which grants can be made under the Code and ~~the~~ as the Educ. Budget allotment is insufficient for its ~~own~~ proper needs no further extension can be made.

[Apart from this I don't see why Govt. should supply teachers with light literature under the Code.
such as Punch, Enigma, English Illustrated &c. &c. See list.]

MT 12.7.00

which may be classed with
"school" libraries for the purposes of the grant in aid Code?

Secy.

Of course Govt. is not bound by the Code so far as it restricts grants; it may give to whom it likes.

The Code is meant in this respect to bind the Dept.
I must be construed with strictness.

The Teachers' Guild Library
seems to me not to come under the Code.

Now I do not make an exception in its favour
(a) because the Govt. budget is not sufficient even for its proper purposes

(b) because this year Govt. needs
all its money.
