SIR,

I have the honour to request that the Government will be pleased to sanction the temporary exemption of Mr. A. Munro from the Hand-writing Test and to permit him to appear for the Criminal lower and Precise writing Tests, with a view to his employment as an Inspector of Police.

2. Mr. Munro is a European, who was brought up in this country. He has passed the Matriculation Examination, the higher standard in Tamil and the lower standard in Hindustani. He is a Bombardier in the Royal artillery, from which he is about to take his discharge; and being young, of good physique, accustomed to discipline, of good character and acquainted with the country, he is just the class of man we require as a European divisional Inspector, of whom there are now very few.

3. I request, therefore, that he may be exempted from passing the Hand-writing Test until the results of the examination to be held in May 1901 are announced, and that he may be permitted to appear for the Criminal Lower and Precise-writing Tests until 1902.

4. The usual form for exemption is enclosed.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

J. Armitage

for Inspector-General of Police.

[Yes, I intended to apply for temporary exemption from all three tests and for permission to appear for Criminal Lower A Under clause (2) of Article 4 of the Public Service Act he could appear for this test if he possessed a second class then certificate of education and the certificate he does possess is higher than that - viz. Matriculation.]

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

The I. G. of Police proposes to appoint one Mr. Munro as a Police Inspector. Mr. Munro has passed only the matriculation examination but not the Handwriting and Dictation test, nor the Criminal Lower and the Precise writing tests which are prescribed for the post of Police Inspector. He must therefore be exempted from passing these tests before he can be appointed a Police Inspector. But the I. G. applies for temporary exemption only from the Handwriting and Dictation test and not from the Criminal Lower and the Precise writing tests. This is probably ^{due to} an oversight and the I. G. of Police may be asked u.o whether it is not so.

Mr. Munro may be exempted from the three tests until the end of 1902 and he ^{meanwhile} ~~can~~ ^{be permitted to} appear for the Criminal test, lower grade, ~~understanding~~

question to enter of the Special test notification

A

As he has passed the matriculation examination he is eligible to appear for the ~~precis~~ writing test under art 4 of the Special test examination notification
and no special permission is necessary.

above /

Please see the 40 reply of the S.G.
of Police on the note (below). May not Munro be now exempted from the handwriting &
dictation test, criminal test, lower grade,
and the precis-writing test until the end of 1902 and permitted to appear for the criminal test, lower grade?

M^r Munro is now a bombardier and expects to take his discharge shortly. He can, after discharge, be hardly regarded as a "military pensioner". The S.G.'s reference to clause 2 of article 4 of the Public Service notification is therefore apparently based on a misapprehension.
