His Excellency.

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council

Through

The Inspector General Registration
Madras

May it please your Excellency,

The humble petition of G. Sreenivasa Sper. B. A Sub Registrar of Assurances Tiruchaly in the District of Madura.

Most respectfully sheweth:-

That he is a Sub Registrar employed in the Registration Department.

That among other Special Tests, he has passed in the first class the Civil Judicial Test, without Civil Rules of Practice to qualify himself for a District Registrarship as required by the Special Tests and Public Service notifications issued by the Government (vide Page 3 of Supplement to Fort St George Gazette dated 26th January 1897) And that he is now desirous of completing the above Test (Civil judicial Test) by passing in the Civil Rules of Practice.

He therefore prays that he may be permitted to appear for the paper in Civil Rules of Practice alone at the next Examination on payment of any fee that may be fixed by the Government.

He humbly begs to submit that, when Civil Account Code was first introduced as an additional subject for the Revenue Tests some time ago, those who had already passed the Revenue Tests were permitted to pass in Account Code alone and complete the Revenue Tests and that, though the petitioner's Case is not an exactly analogous case, the principle underlying is the same.

For the above act of charity, your Excellency's petitioner will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

22nd April 1900.

THE HONBLE MR. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., LL.D., Barrister-at-Law

COMMISSIONER FOR GOVERNMENT EXAMINATIONS,

Madras,

To

THE SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

Educational
LOCAL AND MUNICIPAL DEPARTMENT,

Fort St. George.

SIR,

With reference to your order dated no. 174, dated 12th May 1900, referring to my remarks a memorial from Mr. G.
Srinivasa Sivar, Sub-Registrar of Tirushuli, praying that he may be allowed to appear for the Civil Rules of Practice alone in order to complete the Civil Judcial Test, I have the honour to state that I am not in favour of granting the request unconditionally, as by allowing Sub-Registrars to pass the Test piece-meal, an advantage would be given them over other candidates who have to pass the complete Test at once.
C Under G. O. of 9th May 1894, no 317, Educational, para (11), candidates for the post of District Registrar are required to pass the Civil Judicial Test in all the subjects of the Test, except the Civil Rules of Practice. As there are eight subjects comprised in the Civil Judicial Test, and Sub-Registrars have now to pass in seven of these, they may just as well be required to pass in the remaining subject also, or in all the eight subjects at once. A knowledge of the Civil Rules of Practice may not be required by Registrars for the performance of their duties, but a little additional knowledge can never be profitless and great effort will be needed to acquire it. The course I recommended then is, that from next year Sub-Registrars be required to pass the whole of the Civil Judicial Test for the post of Registrar, but that such of them as may have already passed in seven out of the eight subjects of the Test be allowed time up to the end of 1903 to complete the Test by passing in the Civil Rules of Practice alone, if they wish to qualify for appointments in other departments for which the Civil Judicial Test is prescribed. If this recommendation is approved, I would fix the fee for admission to the examination in the Civil Rules of Practice alone, alone, at Rs 2. ⑦
to

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,
G. A. Street
Commissioner

Educational DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 584 & 859 of 1900.

SUBJECT.

Civil Judicial Test.

Note FOR ORDERS. the A.S.

I find that a knowledge of the Civil Rules of Practice is not at all necessary for the practical work of the department. It was doubtless owing to this consideration that Government expressly excluded this subject from the Civil Judicial Test prescribed for District Registrars - vide clause (11) page 22 of G.O. No. 317, Educational, dated 9th May 1894. A knowledge of the subject may not be profitless, but considering that Subregistrars have generally heavy work to do and that most of them have to work overtime, I think it undesirable to compel them to pass in subjects which are not essential for the efficient discharge of their duties as District Registrars. Those who wish to complete the Civil Judicial Test to qualify themselves for appointments in other departments might fairly be required to pass in all the subjects afresh. A note to this effect might be inserted in the Public Service Notification.

The I.G. of Registration may be asked U.O. whether he has any objection to requiring the Sub Registrars to pass the whole of the Civil Judicial Test from next year, as proposed by the C.S.E.

C. No. 584 & 859 of 1900

SUBJECT.

Civil judicial test

FOR ORDERS.

It is required to have passed in all the subjects prescribed for the Civil judicial test except in one viz "Civil rules of practice"

C. No. 584 is an application from a Sub. Registrar who has passed the Civil judicial test but for the "Civil rules of practice" He desires permission for attending the next examination in this subject alone with a view to complete the Civil judical test.

The Commission for Govt Exams^{ns} is not in favour of granting this request for the reason that Sub. registrars will have an advantage over other Candidates

Candidates; for they could complete the test in two years while the other Candidates should pass in all the subjects in one year. He recommends that the exemption in favour of sub-registrars from passing in "Civil Judicial test" might be removed.

The J. G. of registration, however, considers that a knowledge in Civil rules of practice is not required at all for the work of the registration dept., and that it is not desirable to compel sub-registrars who have heavy work to do to pass in a subject which is not essential for the efficient discharge of their duties.

The exemption from passing in the civil rules of practice is a special concession granted to the men in the department to qualify themselves for higher posts for which a knowledge in the subject is not essential.

himself

And it is submitted that ~~sub-registrars~~ this should not give a special advantage to sub-registrars over other Candidates. If a sub-registrant wants to complete the Civil Judicial test, ^{for many subjects for other posts than sub-registrars} they must appear in all the eight subjects prescribed for the test like any other Candidate.

B

The Commissioner's recommendation to withdraw the exemption does not appear to be necessary with ref. to the J. G. S. remarks and therefore need not be adopted.

[The draft order attached is submitted for approval.]

The contention at A appears to be sound. There is no very distinct advantage if a man could pass in seven subjects ^{only} & then go up when he pleased & pass the eighth by itself.

As to B, there is a conflict of opinion: there is some force in what the J. G. R. says about the heavy work of sub-registrars, & on the whole it may be held
