Asst. Secy.

We may ask A. B. & Co. whether there is a proper "major head" to which charges of this kind should be debited.

2. The matter is one of bookkeeping, & I don't think the "willingness" of departments to accept charges matters much.

NOTE FOR THE ASSISTANT SECRETARY.

With his letter 6162 d1 27th June and 6694 d1 11th July 1900, the Director submits four bills for Rs 3090-14-11, being charges incurred in connection with the transmission of certain exhibits from the School of Arts for the Paris Exhibition and requests that they may be transferred to the Rev. department for settlement. The cost of making these exhibits ^{has been} met from the provision for the school of arts in the Educational Budget. No orders can be traced showing the charges of transmission on the Rev. department.

That department was privately asked last week for papers information on this point but no reply has yet been received. It may now be asked whether it is prepared to meet the charges. If so, the Director's letter may be officially transferred to it. If not, the D. P. will have to be asked to meet the charges from the provision for the school of arts in his budget, with the aid, if necessary, of a special grant for the purpose.

I think we should ask D. P. first, & have proposed that on the back of the C. No. 16.7.900

I have Edul. must pay; but the question must have frequent answer, all over India. Possibly such charges are grouped together & shown under some special head.
